est? He has propagated a base slander against Henry Clay, proved upon him by the whole Western delegation in Congress.

born at Charlesbourg near Quebec. He has left several great grand-children and an aged widow, to whom he had been married for upwards of 60 years.

What talents has he discovered, either as a Representative or Senator in Congress, a Judge of the Court, or Governor of a Province.

Fellow Citizens! The word republican, with him, is a mere name for a common sense. The constitution of our Country is the only one which we have.
