THE LEGISLATURE.

After some preliminary business of no special to portaine, Mr Mayo, in behalf of the Finance Cammittee, to which had been reserved the act to sure the Fee Bill, so as to inclinde under its according for Mortgages and Ray and the Fee Bill, so as to inclinde under its according for Mortgages and Ray are for Mortgages and Ray are for the project of instituting fixed salaritations. Here resused a protracted discussion upon the question what bill should be taken. At length a vote was had on it motion to dispense with the rules, and take up the report of the committee. The seemste refused to suspend the rules.

Mr Puterra gave notice of a bill to essablish Probate Coders in the several Parables of the State. The Seemste then resumed the consideration of the bit to grant pre-emption rights to settler on Public Lands I After a long, and annuated discussion, in which Messra Mayo, Nucholas, Brashera, Marka, Taylor, Fanner and others participated, the bill was adopted by a vote of 22 to 3.

The Seemste took up several bils and reports from the Jadicary Committee, providing for the emblahment of Parash Notaries. The first of these bills provides for the mode of deserting such officers every four vears.

In answer to certain queries, Mr Soule explained

tractions as Notaries in the City of New Orleans, but would have to fulfil duties similar to those now performed by Parish Justices.

Mr Richardson moved an amendment reducing the ternis of service of those officers to two years.—
This was adopted, year 14; mays 11. The bill was then adopted section by section A motion to discourse with the rules, and let the bill pass to its third section by the pass to its third section.
