The War is Was born—We find the following in the Washington Organ, of the 13th. It will help to explain the apparent Democratic success in Fennsylvania.

We are informed by a Democrat of this city that his party are confident of success to morrow in Fennsylvania by 15.000 majority, for the following reasons:

They have colonized voters from New Jersey to an enormous extent. In one ward alone they have colonized voters from New Jersey to an enormous extent. In one ward alone they have colonized life voters.

They have a majority of the judges of election, and rely upon their asi in defrauding the propile of their right.
