L'ABEILLE DE LA NOUVELLE-ORLEANS

HAPPENED IN CHICAGO.

Rochester Was a Success.

Mr. Kipling, who was much admired by many newspaper men in this city, has been a great favorite with the Rochester Post-Dispatch writers. The paper has recently given him a great deal of space to advertise his new book. It is said that this is the first time the Post-Dispatch has ever given so much space to a writer. The paper has also published a number of articles by Mr. Kipling, and it is reported that the paper's circulation has increased by over 50 per cent since the time he started writing for them.

NEW YORK.

Mr. Kipling, who has been a great favorite with the New York World, has been called upon to write for them again. The paper has recently given him a great deal of space to advertise his new book. It is said that this is the first time the World has ever given so much space to a writer. The paper has also published a number of articles by Mr. Kipling, and it is reported that the paper's circulation has increased by over 50 per cent since the time he started writing for them.

WASHINGTON.

Mr. Kipling, who has been a great favorite with the Washington Post, has been called upon to write for them again. The paper has recently given him a great deal of space to advertise his new book. It is said that this is the first time the Post has ever given so much space to a writer. The paper has also published a number of articles by Mr. Kipling, and it is reported that the paper's circulation has increased by over 50 per cent since the time he started writing for them.

SANTA FE.

Mr. Kipling, who has been a great favorite with the Santa Fe New Mexican, has been called upon to write for them again. The paper has recently given him a great deal of space to advertise his new book. It is said that this is the first time the New Mexican has ever given so much space to a writer. The paper has also published a number of articles by Mr. Kipling, and it is reported that the paper's circulation has increased by over 50 per cent since the time he started writing for them.

LANCASTER.

Mr. Kipling, who has been a great favorite with the Lancaster Eagle-Gazette, has been called upon to write for them again. The paper has recently given him a great deal of space to advertise his new book. It is said that this is the first time the Eagle-Gazette has ever given so much space to a writer. The paper has also published a number of articles by Mr. Kipling, and it is reported that the paper's circulation has increased by over 50 per cent since the time he started writing for them.

ST. PAUL.

Mr. Kipling, who has been a great favorite with the St. Paul Pioneer Press, has been called upon to write for them again. The paper has recently given him a great deal of space to advertise his new book. It is said that this is the first time the Pioneer Press has ever given so much space to a writer. The paper has also published a number of articles by Mr. Kipling, and it is reported that the paper's circulation has increased by over 50 per cent since the time he started writing for them.

MINNEAPOLIS.

Mr. Kipling, who has been a great favorite with the Minneapolis Star-Tribune, has been called upon to write for them again. The paper has recently given him a great deal of space to advertise his new book. It is said that this is the first time the Star-Tribune has ever given so much space to a writer. The paper has also published a number of articles by Mr. Kipling, and it is reported that the paper's circulation has increased by over 50 per cent since the time he started writing for them.

SALT LAKE CITY.

Mr. Kipling, who has been a great favorite with the Salt Lake Tribune, has been called upon to write for them again. The paper has recently given him a great deal of space to advertise his new book. It is said that this is the first time the Tribune has ever given so much space to a writer. The paper has also published a number of articles by Mr. Kipling, and it is reported that the paper's circulation has increased by over 50 per cent since the time he started writing for them.

SACRAMENTO.

Mr. Kipling, who has been a great favorite with the Sacramento Bee, has been called upon to write for them again. The paper has recently given him a great deal of space to advertise his new book. It is said that this is the first time the Bee has ever given so much space to a writer. The paper has also published a number of articles by Mr. Kipling, and it is reported that the paper's circulation has increased by over 50 per cent since the time he started writing for them.

BOSTON.

Mr. Kipling, who has been a great favorite with the Boston Globe, has been called upon to write for them again. The paper has recently given him a great deal of space to advertise his new book. It is said that this is the first time the Globe has ever given so much space to a writer. The paper has also published a number of articles by Mr. Kipling, and it is reported that the paper's circulation has increased by over 50 per cent since the time he started writing for them.

PHILADELPHIA.

Mr. Kipling, who has been a great favorite with the Philadelphia Inquirer, has been called upon to write for them again. The paper has recently given him a great deal of space to advertise his new book. It is said that this is the first time the Inquirer has ever given so much space to a writer. The paper has also published a number of articles by Mr. Kipling, and it is reported that the paper's circulation has increased by over 50 per cent since the time he started writing for them.

LONDON.

Mr. Kipling, who has been a great favorite with the London Times, has been called upon to write for them again. The paper has recently given him a great deal of space to advertise his new book. It is said that this is the first time the Times has ever given so much space to a writer. The paper has also published a number of articles by Mr. Kipling, and it is reported that the paper's circulation has increased by over 50 per cent since the time he started writing for them.

NEW YORK.

Mr. Kipling, who has been a great favorite with the New York World, has been called upon to write for them again. The paper has recently given him a great deal of space to advertise his new book. It is said that this is the first time the World has ever given so much space to a writer. The paper has also published a number of articles by Mr. Kipling, and it is reported that the paper's circulation has increased by over 50 per cent since the time he started writing for them.

WASHINGTON.

Mr. Kipling, who has been a great favorite with the Washington Post, has been called upon to write for them again. The paper has recently given him a great deal of space to advertise his new book. It is said that this is the first time the Post has ever given so much space to a writer. The paper has also published a number of articles by Mr. Kipling, and it is reported that the paper's circulation has increased by over 50 per cent since the time he started writing for them.

LANCASTER.

Mr. Kipling, who has been a great favorite with the Lancaster Eagle-Gazette, has been called upon to write for them again. The paper has recently given him a great deal of space to advertise his new book. It is said that this is the first time the Eagle-Gazette has ever given so much space to a writer. The paper has also published a number of articles by Mr. Kipling, and it is reported that the paper's circulation has increased by over 50 per cent since the time he started writing for them.

SALT LAKE CITY.

Mr. Kipling, who has been a great favorite with the Salt Lake Tribune, has been called upon to write for them again. The paper has recently given him a great deal of space to advertise his new book. It is said that this is the first time the Tribune has ever given so much space to a writer. The paper has also published a number of articles by Mr. Kipling, and it is reported that the paper's circulation has increased by over 50 per cent since the time he started writing for them.

SACRAMENTO.

Mr. Kipling, who has been a great favorite with the Sacramento Bee, has been called upon to write for them again. The paper has recently given him a great deal of space to advertise his new book. It is said that this is the first time the Bee has ever given so much space to a writer. The paper has also published a number of articles by Mr. Kipling, and it is reported that the paper's circulation has increased by over 50 per cent since the time he started writing for them.

BOSTON.

Mr. Kipling, who has been a great favorite with the Boston Globe, has been called upon to write for them again. The paper has recently given him a great deal of space to advertise his new book. It is said that this is the first time the Globe has ever given so much space to a writer. The paper has also published a number of articles by Mr. Kipling, and it is reported that the paper's circulation has increased by over 50 per cent since the time he started writing for them.

PHILADELPHIA.

Mr. Kipling, who has been a great favorite with the Philadelphia Inquirer, has been called upon to write for them again. The paper has recently given him a great deal of space to advertise his new book. It is said that this is the first time the Inquirer has ever given so much space to a writer. The paper has also published a number of articles by Mr. Kipling, and it is reported that the paper's circulation has increased by over 50 per cent since the time he started writing for them.

LONDON.

Mr. Kipling, who has been a great favorite with the London Times, has been called upon to write for them again. The paper has recently given him a great deal of space to advertise his new book. It is said that this is the first time the Times has ever given so much space to a writer. The paper has also published a number of articles by Mr. Kipling, and it is reported that the paper's circulation has increased by over 50 per cent since the time he started writing for them.