CALA DAY 48 HOURS LONG.

The World Series has come to an end, and the Ashes are won. After a long and arduous campaign, the Australian team has emerged victorious over their English rivals. The series was won by Australia in three of the five Tests, with the remaining two matches drawn.

RABBIT WITH MANY HORNBS.

Sir, in a recent issue of your newspaper, you mentioned the remarkable feat of a rabbit with many horns. I was intrigued by this story and decided to investigate further. I found that the rabbit in question, named Mr. Big Horns, was actually a breed of rabbit that has been artificially manipulated to grow multiple horns. This breed, known as the Horned Rabbit, has gained popularity in recent years and has become a symbol of innovation and creativity in the animal kingdom.

IRISH SENT TO ARGENTINA.

A new diplomatic mission has been established in Buenos Aires, Argentina. This mission will serve as a bridge between Ireland and Argentina, fostering cultural and economic exchanges between the two countries. The mission will be headed by Mr. John O'Connor, a seasoned diplomat with extensive experience in Latin America.

THE CONDITION IN RUSSIA.

The situation in Russia continues to be unstable. The government has recently announced a series of economic reforms, including price controls and increased taxation, which have led to widespread protests across the country. The opposition has called for a new election, and the government has vowed to cracking down on dissent.

RACING MAKES THEM MAD.

The recent racing season has been marked by a series of controversial incidents. In one incident, a jockey was caught using performance-enhancing drugs, leading to a ban from racing. In another incident, a trainer was accused of animal cruelty, causing widespread public outrage.
