NRW-ORLEANS: MONDAY MORNING, JULY 4, 1848. WILIG READ QUARTERS

Will be at the office of L P. Benjamia, Fsq., Ex-hange Place, where the Executive Committee wil n permanent session during the day.

HHIGS REMEMBER,
That the VOTES are received at the DIFFERENT WARDS, and that the POLLS ARE KEPT OPEN BUT FOR ONE DAY. Remember, likewise, to LOOK WELL TO YOUR

uay of July, 1982, any thing contained in this act, or the said act of the 4th of September 1981, to the countrary not withstanding."

Mr. Rives addressed the Sensts for upwards of three bours in opposition to both the original proviso and substitute, arguing sook streamously in favor of letting the Distribution act take effect dering the month of July and urging that a breach of faith was involved in the course proposed by any such provisos as those now under discussion. Mr. Crittenden replies with his accustomed falicity of retort. The debate was continued until six o'clock, the amendment being adopted by a vote of year. 23, mays 18, and a subsequent motion by Mr. King | o strike out the provison amended being negatived by a tind vote of 3ll year to 2ll nays. The bill was then read a third time and passed by a vote of 24 year, 19 nays.

The Benate at six o'clock adjourned after a most necession of seven hours.

In the House of Representatives, after the reception and reference of various executive commanications, in answer to resolutions, the bill "artending the operation of the present reveace laws till August," was re-Let each and every Whig voter before leaving his couse in the morning put His Tax Receipt in His Pocker.
