Saunders requested to reach is document, without making any formal speech. He read accordingly.

It was a communication written by the delegation of Louisians, predicated upon the expressions and sentiments of Gen. Taylor had taken no part in bringing his name before the American people. His friends throughout the Union find placed him prominently before the Purion find placed him prominently before the Purion find placed him prominently before the people as a candidate for the high office that was once held by the "Father of his Country." Under these circumstances, Gen. Taylor considered himself in the hands of his friends, to be dealt with as they, not Ar, should decide to be proper—and from the circumstances with which he had been brought forward, he did not think he was at liberty to withdraw himself, under any contingency. He had not sought the office—he would not affect to decline it. The document then went on to say that Gen. Taylor wished it to be understood that in his opinion his friends who took part in the proceedings of the convention ought to abide by the decision and will of the convention, and in sustain the monimation of the Convention. The written has been puriously by the decision and will offer the proper was a final feel the had been printed in the newspapers, it was then sared that the friends of Gen. Taylor in the Convention feel. Scott was handed to the Secretary by Mr. Truman Simth.

A letter from General Taylor, dated Baton Rouge, January Mih. 1849, was offered; but as it had been printed in the newspapers, it was ruled out of order.

it has been printed in the newspapers, it was ruled out of order. Leave being granted, the letter from General Scott was read. It was dated Washington, June 2nd, 1818, and after having acknowledged the recent of a letter from his correspondent, and admitting the importance of the views that thail been laad before him, he states that until within a lew days, he did not know that the name would be placed before the convention, and cancluded by saying that whether he received the nonmation of the convention or not, he should, as a Whig. feel himself under every obligation to support the nonmation of the convention.

The convention then proceeded to bailot, which resulted as follow.

The last scenario Anarea Jacason, arrived yesterday, bringing us Memphis papers of the 15th inst. They contain a Telegraphic despatch from Boson, dated June 13th, which announces the arrival of the Steamship America, in the astonishingly short space of Tra Davs, having left Liverpool, on the 3d inst. Thus, we believe, is the quickest trip on record. The news as given by the Memphis papers, is as follows:

There have been armed assemblagen of the Chartiests and Repealers; and serious riots have taken place in various parts of England. Business has been almost entirely suspended in the manufacturing districts. Mitchell has been convicted of treason, and sentenced to transportation for fourteen years, and to labor in the halks at Bermuda. At the last accounts Paris was The committee, of which M.
