PERMANSHIP.

Practical and Ornamental, Taught at DOLBEAR & BROTHERS' Writing Academy, No 3 Chartres street.—The extensive patronage which they have received since the establishment of their Academy in this city, and the increasing applications for instruction in the science, as well as the practice of Writing, lately induced them to establish permanent schools also in New York, New Orleans and Mobile; and in their attention to afford greater facilities for the acquisition of Penmanship, than are afforded by any other institution in the country. By concentering one of them here the privilege of attending at either of the others without extra charge. The Ladies and gentlemen are respectfully invited to call. Specimens of rapid improvement given by persons from 8 to 50 years of age, who have received lessons in this city only by the above system. Any hour of the day. Students can apply at a delicate and rapid epistolary style; also, various styles of ornamental writing, suited to Albums, Notes of Compliment, &c. Gentlemen are taught a free and expeditious hand-writing calculated to facilitate business transactions, by dispensing with the delay usually attending the hieroglyphical scrawl of most men of business. Those preparing to go to sea, a style of super rapid, and elegant. Persons visiting the city for only a few days will receive special attention.

Thursdays and Evenings are left for the especial accommodation of Ladies who prefer to receive instruction separately from the gentlemen.

Ladies who prefer it can receive lessons at their own residences. Ornamental writing executed with elegance.

N. B. Dolbear's "Science of Penmanship" particularly designed for private learners and schools, and calculated for persons of all ages, imparting an ease and freedom not attained by any other method. A Sunday's practice copy book for female seminaries constituting a supplement to the science of Penmanship, for sale here.

GRANDJEAN & SALZMANN

A BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HAIR is the greatest ornament belonging to the human frame. How strangely the best of mankind pass the countenances and prematurely bonged the appearance of age, by such causes as may be cured at the outset, and sometimes even to stand society to avoid the sneers and taunts of their acquaintances; the remainder of their days are spent in solitude, and in the midst of social festivity, not even the loss of property fills the gnawing worm of youth with that misery flowing gloom as does the loss of his hair. To prevent such misfortunes, OLDRIDGE'S BALM OF COLUMBIA stands the best remedy known, operating with a mild but effectual influence on the roots of the hair, thereby giving it nourishment, causing it to grow luxuriantly, and preventing it from falling off. Numerous certificates of the first respectability in support of the virtues of Oldridge's Balm, are shown by the proprietors.

For sale by the following agents:

ROBERT WHARTON, Esq late Mayor of Philadelphia, has certified, as may be seen below, to the truth character of the following gentlemen.

The undersigned do hereby certify have made use of the Balm of Columbia recommended by J. Oldridge, and have found it highly serviceable to not only as a preventive against the falling of the hair, but as a restorative.

The aged, and those who present in wearing caps, may not be aware of the influence the atmosphere will certainly rob it of in the estimation of the public, when it is known that three fifths of above persons is more than 50 years of age, and the others not less than 30.

From the Mayor
Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, } City of Philadelphia }

I, ROBERT WHARTON, mayor of said city of Philadelphia, do hereby certify that I personally know the Messrs J. P. Ingles, John S. Pomp, & Co. Hugh McCurdy, whose names are signed to the above certificate, and have every confidence in their character and respectability and as such full credit should be given to their certificate.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the city to be affixed, this 16th day of December, &c.

ROBERT WHARTON, Mayor.

CAUTION.—Observe that each bottle of the genuine balm has a splendid engraved wrapper, on which is represented the Falls of Niagara, the agent's name, &c.

STATE OF LOUISIANA, Parish Court, for the Parish and City of New Orleans—Present the Hon Charles Maurian, Judge.—Alex Bonnabel, Jr. vs. Jacob Hyde, Jr.—No 6307. On reading and filing the petition and order of seizure and sale, and on motion of Mr Bonnabel, attorney for plaintiff, it is ordered by the court that the property described in said petition and order of seizure and sale, to wit: Two lots of ground situated in the Second District of this city, designated on the plan of said district by the numbers 1 and 2 in square No 19, fronting each on Bourbon street, and measuring each thereon 40 feet front on said street by a depth between parallel lines of 120 feet, be disposed according to law, and in the manner and on the terms prescribed by the following writ of fieri facias, to me directed, viz: That the property seized and described in said petition and order of seizure and sale, be sold with the benefit of appraisement, by the Sheriff of this parish, at the Exchange of New Orleans, on a credit of one, two and three years, for the price and sum of $2,000, payable in three equal annual instalments, with interest at the rate of five per cent per annum from the day of sale, and with mortgage and special privilege on the property purchased, to secure the payment of the purchase money, and that the Sheriff be authorized to execute the proper deed of sale to the purchaser, and that he cause the proceeds of said sale to be brought into court, to abide the further order of the court.

Given under my hand and seal of office, this 22d day of June, 1838.

CHARLES MAURIAN, Judge.
