ACT NO. 6.

Senate Bill No. 5. By Mr. Burke.
Joint resolution submitting to the people of Louisiana an amendment to the Constitution exempting from taxation for twenty (20) years corporations organized to lend money on mortgages on country property at not more than six (6) per cent interest, net to the borrower, with power to negotiate bonds and securities of local taxing districts.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, two-thirds of all the members elected to each house concurring, That the following amendment to the Constitution of the State of Louisiana be and the same is hereby submitted to the qualified electors of the State at the congressional election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in the month of November of the year 1912, to-wit:

The capital, surplus and personal estate of every corporation hereafter organized in this State for the sole purpose of lending money on mortgages on country property situated in Louisiana at a rate of interest not to exceed (6) per cent net to the borrower, with power to negotiate and handle bonds and securities issued by the various parishes and local districts and municipalities of the State of Louisiana shall be exempt from taxation for twenty (20) years from the date of the organization of each of said companies, provided that each of said companies shall have a full paid cash capital stock of not less than $250,000.00, and provided further that in case any such corporation shall on any loan charge the borrower more than six per cent interest, whether by way of commission, discount, or otherwise, it shall forfeit the entire exemption herein granted, and be subject to taxation from the time it makes such loan; and any such corporation handling or negotiating any securities other than those hereinabove mentioned shall incur a like forfeiture.

No such corporation shall have power to receive any money on deposit or to do a banking business of any sort, but all such corporations shall be under the control and supervision of the State Bank Examiner, whose duty it shall be to report to the Attorney General and the State Tax Commission any violation of the condition of this exemption.

Section 2. Be it further resolved, etc., That there shall be printed in the ballots to be used at said election the words: "For the amendment to the Constitution exempting from taxation for twenty (20) years corporations organized for the sole purpose of lending money on country real estate situated in Louisiana at not more than six (6) per cent to the borrower, with power to negotiate and handle local securities," and the words "Against the amendment to the Constitution exempting from taxation for twenty (20) years corporations organized for the sole purpose of lending money on country real estate situated in Louisiana at no more than six (6) per cent net to the borrower, with power to negotiate local securities," and each elector shall indicate on his ballot, as provided by the general election laws of the State whether he votes for or against the said amendment.

ACT NO. 10.

Senate Bill No. 2. By Mr. Shaffer.
Joint resolution submitting to the people of the State of Louisiana, at the congressional election to be held in November, 1912, an amendment to the Constitution of the State exempting from taxation for ten (10) years from the date of completion the capital stock, Franchises, and certain property of all corporations constructing, owning and operating within the State a combined system of irrigation, navigation and hydro-electric power, using fresh water streams and water shoals, provided that such system be completed and in operation within five (5) years from January 1st, 1913, and providing further that not less than five millions dollars shall have been expended in the construction of such system.

Whereas, the State of Louisiana has large areas comprising millions of acres of land that can be reclaimed and brought into cultivation by irrigation, whereby large additions will be made to the population and the assessed value of the State; and,

Whereas, canals can be constructed so as to provide irrigation, water power, and it is the State's duty to encourage and promote the consummation of such concerns.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, two-thirds of all the members elected to each house concurring, That the following amendment to the Constitution be submitted to the qualified electors of the State for their adoption or rejection at the congressional election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in the month of November, 1912, as follows:

There shall be exempt from taxation for ten (10) years from the date of completion, the capital stock, franchises and property of all corporations constructing, owning and operating within the State a combined system of irrigation, navigation and hydro-electric power, using fresh water of Louisiana streams, and water shoals, provided that such system shall be completed and in operation within five (5) years from January 1st, 1913, and provided further that not less than five millions dollars shall have been expended in the construction of such system. No real or municipal property shall be covered by this exemption except that which is reasonably connected with and appurtenant to such canal system and forming part thereof, nor shall this exemption extend to the general taxes that such real estate had at the time it may be acquired by the company provided that the right of the State to regulate the diversion of the public waters from their natural beds shall not be evaded by this amendment.

Section 2. Be it further resolved, etc., That the official ballot to be used at said election shall have printed thereon the words: "For the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Louisiana exempting from all taxation the canals, water power and irrigation system of the Commission of the State of Louisiana created under the laws of the State," and the words "Against the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Louisiana exempting from all taxation the canals, water power and irrigation system of the Commission of the State of Louisiana created under the laws of this State," and each elector shall indicate as provided in the general election laws of the State whether he votes for or against the proposed amendment.

ACT NO. 11.

House Bill No. 2. By Mr. Roberts.
Joint resolution submitting to the people of the State of Louisiana an amendment to the Constitution recognizing and preserving the State's system of assessment and taxation.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, two-thirds of all the members elected to each house concurring, That the following amendment to the Constitution of the State of Louisiana be and the same is hereby submitted to the qualified electors of the State at the congressional election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in the month of November in the year 1912, to-wit:

ARTICLE I.

1. The taxing power shall be exercised by the State and by its sub-divisions for public purposes only.

2. The taxing power shall never be surrendered, suspended, given away or contracted away, nor shall any contract be made whereby the power to tax any person, corporation or property shall be in any manner abridged, except that the General Assembly may grant an exemption from taxation of manufacturing establishments, or of any particular class of manufacturing establishments, for a period not to exceed ten years, and may grant an exemption from taxation of homesteads, not to exceed $2,000 in value, and may grant an exemption from taxation of all property belonging to the United States, to this State, or to any municipal corporation, or to any religious, educational or charitable institution not conducted for private or corporate profit, or to any cemetery company owning property which is exempt while used exclusively for cemetery purposes, or to any fraternal or beneficial association, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, and which is devoted exclusively to the charitable, fraternal or beneficial purposes of such association, or to any property belonging to a county, parish, municipality or school district, and used exclusively for public purposes.

3. The General Assembly shall have power to classify all property for taxation, and to adopt different rates and forms of taxation for different classes, but such rates and rules shall be equal and uniform in all subjects of the same class throughout the territorial limits of the authority levying the tax. All limits of the authority levying the tax. All such classifications shall be based on the characteristics of the property itself or its use, and never on the person owning it.

4. Except in cases of taxation for municipal purposes, the General Assembly shall not have power to levy and collect taxes on property but it may levy taxes on the privilege of doing business, on franchises, on the sale of merchandise, on the income from property, on the excess of assessed valuation over the price paid by the present owner, on the increase in value of property when sold, on successions, on licenses, and on such other subjects as may be selected by a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each House of the General Assembly, taking the yeas and nays on the question.

5. Until otherwise provided by the General Assembly, the following shall be exempt from taxation:

1st. The current year's assessment upon property assessed for the year 1912.

2nd. All corporations, private property and improvements belonging under the jurisdiction of the Board of Commissioners of Louisiana Navigation Canals, Levees and Improvements, and under the laws of this State, and all corporations belonging to the canal system of this State, and all property and improvements of every kind and character owned, leased or controlled by said corporations, and all property and improvements of every kind and character belonging to the Board of Commissioners of Louisiana Navigation Canals, Levees and Improvements, and all property and improvements of every kind and character belonging to the canal system of this State.

3rd. All property belonging to the United States, to this State, or to any municipal corporation, or to any religious, educational or charitable institution not conducted for private or corporate profit, or to any cemetery company owning property which is exempt while used exclusively for cemetery purposes, or to any fraternal or beneficial association, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, and which is devoted exclusively to the charitable, fraternal or beneficial purposes of such association, or to any property belonging to a county, parish, municipality or school district, and used exclusively for public purposes.

4th. All other property subject to taxation, which shall be exempted by a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each House of the General Assembly taking the yeas and nays on the question.

6. The following shall be exempt from taxation:

1st. The current year's assessment upon property assessed for the year 1912.

2nd. All corporations, private property and improvements belonging under the jurisdiction of the Board of Commissioners of Louisiana Navigation Canals, Levees and Improvements, and under the laws of this State, and all corporations belonging to the canal system of this State, and all property and improvements of every kind and character owned, leased or controlled by said corporations, and all property and improvements of every kind and character belonging to the Board of Commissioners of Louisiana Navigation Canals, Levees and Improvements, and all property and improvements of every kind and character belonging to the canal system of this State.

3rd. All property belonging to the United States, to this State, or to any municipal corporation, or to any religious, educational or charitable institution not conducted for private or corporate profit, or to any cemetery company owning property which is exempt while used exclusively for cemetery purposes, or to any fraternal or beneficial association, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, and which is devoted exclusively to the charitable, fraternal or beneficial purposes of such association, or to any property belonging to a county, parish, municipality or school district, and used exclusively for public purposes.

4th. All other property subject to taxation, which shall be exempted by a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each House of the General Assembly taking the yeas and nays on the question.

7. Until otherwise provided by the General Assembly, the following shall be exempt from taxation:

1st. The current year's assessment upon property assessed for the year 1912.
