The New Orleans Bee.

NO. 96. VOL. I. NEW SERIES. NEW-ORLEANS, WEDNESDAY MORNING, MAY 1, 1839. VOL. XII. WHOLE NO. 3096.

BY JOLLITT, BULLEN & MACRAE,
No 63 CHARTRES STREET

TERMS OF THIS WEEK.

SUBSCRIPTION.—Four Dollars for six lines and fifty cents for each additional one, payable invariably in advance. No subscription received for less than one week. No advertisement discontinued until charges are settled. In cases of dispute the case will be decided by arbitration, consisting of two disinterested persons, to be chosen by the parties, and in case of disagreement a third person to be chosen by the arbitrators.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—Ten dollars per square for the first week, and five dollars per square for each subsequent week, unless otherwise specified at the time of handing in the advertisement. Those not specified as to time will be inserted until forbid, and charged accordingly.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—One dollar per square for the first insertion, and half that sum for each subsequent insertion. Those containing any material alteration from the original will be charged as a new one. Those not exceeding ten lines to be considered as a square.

ADVERTISEMENTS ordered to be published at intervals, will be charged one dollar per square, for each insertion.

YEARLY ADVERTISERS.—Merchants and Tradesmen, forty dollars for Eighth, eighty dollars for Quarter, one hundred and fifty dollars for Half, and two hundred dollars for One Square, including the privilege of changing their advertisements as often as they please. Ship Brokers, Auctioneers, Hotels, Steamboats, Packets, Theatres, Lectures, Professional Men, Mechanics, Manufacturers, Factories, Public Institutions, Banks, Insurance Companies, Rail Roads, Canals