We have received from Albert Eyrich, bookseller, 130 Canal street, a copy of Charles Reade's last novel "Put Yourself in his place," a work which is favorably spoken of by the critics, and is having spoken of by the critics, and is having a great run of popular favor both in England and the United States. It is one of Harper's series of novels, and is illustrated and printed in attractive style.

We have also received from Mr. Eyrich the July number of the "New Orleans Journal of Medicine."
