ENGLISH SECTION

LA PARISIENNE

CITY AND STATE NEWS IN BRIEF

Lawrence Public of New York City Life Underwriters Association, Inc., had a great success when it presented its opera, "La Parisienne," at the Long Island Light Opera Association's winter season on Long Island. The opera was presented in a single night, the schedule being: the opera, "La Parisienne," and the musical comedy, "The Merry Widow." The orchestra was under the direction of Dr. Casimir, and the chorus was conducted by Mr. V. S. Latham. The leading roles were performed by Miss Lily Pons, as the heroine, and Mr. Edwin Booth, as the hero. The opera was produced by Mr. L. B. K. Seifert, and the scenery and properties were designed by Mr. J. H. L. Seifert. The opera was a great success, and the audience was enthusiastic throughout.

Real Estate Transfers

FIRST DISTRICT

Anheuser-Busch and Loewen announced the sale of the property at 1234, 1st Avenue, to the John R. Morgan Corporation, for $65,000. The new owners plan to demolish the building and erect a new structure.

SECOND DISTRICT

Harry G. Smith purchased the property at 2123, 2nd Avenue, for $50,000. The property was previously owned by Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, who has been living in the area for many years.

THIRD DISTRICT

Harry G. Smith purchased the property at 2123, 2nd Avenue, for $50,000. The property was previously owned by Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, who has been living in the area for many years.

MARKET QUOTATIONS

BOARD OF TRADE QUOTATIONS

Barrer and Chaser

Barber and Chaser

Poultry and Eggs

Poultry and Eggs

Vegetables

New Orleans

Poultry

Cheese-

New Orleans

Bacon

Cheese-

New Orleans

Poultry

New Orleans

Cheese-

New Orleans

Poultry