WASHINGTON—The U.S. Navy announced on Thursday that the United States would not expand its missile population because of cost. The announcement was made at a press conference held at 10 a.m. in the White House.

The Navy has decided to limit its missile population to the existing number of 180,000. This decision was based on a study of the costs involved in expanding the missile population.

The Navy's decision is in keeping with the recommendation of the President's advisory committee on national defense.

Second Wife Rough, Girls in Egypt Told

CAIRO, Egypt—Egypt's President Anwar Sadat has divorced his second wife, a rough and tough girl, and married a new girl, according to a statement released by the President's office.

Sadat said the new girl is much more suitable for him than his previous wives.

Claim Russ Testing for Anti-Missile

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States has discovered that the Russians have tested an anti-missile system. The system is capable of neutralizing foreign missiles in mid-air.

The system has been tested several times and has proven effective in neutralizing foreign missiles. The United States has decided to strengthen its own missile defense system in response to this discovery.

Church Union To Take Time

NEW YORK (AP)—HARRY WASSING TELLS STORY—Dr. R. S. Wassing, the President of the Church Union, today announced that the church's answer to the present situation is to take time.

Dr. Wassing said that the church must take time to study the situation and to consider all factors before making any decision.

Ten Polaris Missiles Squarely on Targets

WASHINGTON, D.C.—The United States has deployed ten Polaris missiles in strategic locations. The deployment of these missiles is a significant step in the United States' efforts to maintain its nuclear deterrence.

The Polaris missiles are capable of carrying multiple warheads and are designed to be effective against a wide range of targets.

3 Top GOP Candidates Stay in News

WASHINGTON, D.C.—The three top Republican candidates for the presidency have announced their intention to stay in the race.

Goldwater has said he will continue to campaign for the nomination, while Rockefeller and Nixon have both announced they will run for the nomination. This decision has put pressure on the other candidates to make a decision as well.

Youth Injured On Bicycle

WASHINGTON (AP)—A 14-year-old boy was injured on a bicycle in a collision with a car. The boy was taken to the hospital and is expected to recover.

The incident occurred on a busy street, and the driver of the car is expected to be charged with reckless driving.