SEEK BANDITS’ LOOT.

TRAPSY ROBBERY CLIFF IS LURKING.

THE SHERIFF OF New Orleans had the veteran of the state at his place yesterday afternoon to discuss the banditry in the eastern section of the state. He stated that the bandits had been active for the past two weeks in the vicinity of the town of Oxford, and that he had reason to believe that they were within the county of Warren. The sheriff said that he had information from reliable sources that the bandits were planning to rob a bank in Oxford, and that they were expected to arrive in the town within the next few days. The sheriff promised to do his best to prevent the robbery, and he asked the public to be on the lookout for any suspicious activity.

TO CORRECT FOR INDIANS.

BETWEEN CHIEF AT CAMP.

AUGUSTINE ON FUNERAL.

Chief Augustine, of the Shawnee Indians, was buried yesterday morning at the Indian Agency. He was one of the oldest and most respected members of the tribe, and his death was deeply regretted by all who knew him. The funeral services were conducted by the Reverend Mr. Smith, and were attended by a large number of the tribe. The body of the chief was laid to rest in the Indian cemetery, and the burial was followed by a ceremony of mourning and sorrow.

COURT CASES FOR INDIANS.

FIRE IN A SQUATCH.

The trial of the case of John Doe, of the Shawnee Indians, for the murder of a man at the Indian Agency, was held in the circuit court yesterday. The defendant was charged with the murder of John Smith, who was killed in a dispute over land. The trial lasted for two days, and the jury found the defendant guilty of the charge. The defendant was sentenced to 20 years in prison.

HAS SHAKESPEARE RELIC.

LITERARY REPRODUCTION OF THE SHAKESPEAREAN RELIC.

The literary reproduction of the Shakespearean relic was completed yesterday by the admirers of the great poet. The reproduction is a perfect replica of the original, and is being kept in a special museum. The admirers of the poet are now planning to publish a book containing the reproduction, which will be a valuable contribution to the study of Shakespearean literature.

TO LIVE OVER STILL.

LIVE IN THE fashion of the early days of the Republic.

A RURAL RESIDENT of the state, who has been living in the country for many years, recently wrote a letter to a friend in the city, describing the life he is leading. He said that he is living in the fashion of the early days of the Republic, and that he is enjoying the simple life. He said that he is spending most of his time on his farm, and that he is growing all his own food. He said that he is living a contented life, and that he is happy.

SAVE 200 INDIANS’ GRAVE.

A HELPING HAND.

A helping hand was extended yesterday to the Indians of the state, who are in a critical situation. The state government has been called upon to help the Indians, who are suffering from drought and famine. The government has promised to do its best to alleviate the suffering of the Indians, and to provide them with food and clothing.

L'ABEILLE DE LA NOUVELLE-ORLEANS — MARDI, 17 AVRIL 1916

TRICLMAN IN DRESS SUIT.

TRICLMAN IN DRESS SUIT.

A TRICLMAN in a dress suit was seen yesterday in the downtown section of the city. He was carrying a large bundle of newspapers, and was returning to his home after a day's work. The man was dressed in a fine suit of clothes, and looked very much like a country gentleman. The man was identified as a newspaper carrier, and he was returning to his home after a day's work.

MAN IS OFFICIALLY DEAD.

A MIRACLE MAN.

A MIRACLE man was declared dead yesterday by the coroner of the county. The man had been reported missing for several days, and his body was found yesterday in a pond. The coroner said that the man had drowned, and that his body was found floating in the pond. The man was identified as a local business man, and his death was a great shock to the community.

TRAIN KNocks OFF SHOES.

A TRAIN was involved in an accident yesterday, and several people were injured. The accident occurred at the crossing of the railroad track and the street, and the train was moving at a high speed. The conductor of the train was injured, and several passengers were also injured. The train was stopped, and the injured people were taken to the hospital.

FATHER PLEDGED FOR SON.

A FATHER is being held at the county jail for his son, who is charged with the murder of a man. The father is a prominent businessman, and he is being held for bail. The son is charged with the murder of a man, and the father has pledged a large sum of money to secure his release.

LAVA IS LATEST VEGETABLE.

LAVA IS LATEST VEGETABLE.

A LAVA-heavy vegetable is being grown in the garden of the man. The vegetable is a new variety, and it is being grown for the first time. The man said that he had never grown the vegetable before, and that he was very pleased with the results. The vegetable is being sold at a high price, and it is expected to become very popular.

TAKEN 200 MILES ON SLED.

TAKEN 200 MILES ON SLED.

A SLED was taken 200 miles on the ice yesterday, and it was used for the transportation of supplies. The sled was loaded with food and clothing, and it was taken to the isolated settlement of the north. The sled was pulled by a team of dogs, and it was a great success. The supplies were delivered to the settlement, and the people were very grateful.