HORSE KICKS UP 148 COINS and Wins $468.75 in a One-Horse Show

Martin, Tenn. - A horse kicked up 148 dimes in the arena of a one-horse show here Saturday night and won $468.75 for its owner, the horse trainer, who entered it in the show.

Workmen who built the ring for the one-horse show said that the number of dimes kicked up by the horse was greater than any they had ever seen in a show.

The horse kicked up the dimes in a matter of seconds, and the owner said he was surprised at the number of dimes kicked up.

MISER VICTIM OF POISON

Wayne, W.Va. - Mrs. Helen R. Martin, 60, and her son, 22, were found dead in their home on Thursday evening.

The woman and her son were found in the living room of their home, where they had been living for several years.

An autopsy was performed on the woman, who died of a drug overdose, and her son, who was found dead in the same room.

TRAMP LEFT HER A FORTUNE

Truman, Mo. - An elderly woman who was found dead in a ditch on the outskirts of the city on Thursday left her fortune to a tramp who found her.

The tramp, who has been living in the city for several years, found the woman and reported her death to the police.

The woman left a fortune in her will, which was found in her wallet.

BLIND CHARLEY GOES AWAY

Cleveland, Ohio - Blind Charlie, the famous aerialist, has been discharged from the hospital and is on his way home.

Blind Charlie, who has been a popular attraction for many years, was hospitalised after falling from a circus tent in Cleveland.

His condition has improved greatly since his discharge, and he is expected to make a full recovery.

GROWTH SEEKS STONE

New York - The New York Times reported today that a growth has been discovered on the stone used in the construction of the Times Tower.

The growth was discovered by a worker who was cleaning the stone, and the Times is now investigating the cause.

FAIR TRIAL WAS IMPOSSIBLE

During the trial of William Smith, the defendant was found guilty of murder.

It was impossible to give him a fair trial, as the evidence against him was not convincing.

PERSIAN WAC FIRST

The Persian Women's Association was founded in 1963 and is the first women's association of its kind in the country.

The organization was formed to promote the interests of Persian women and to provide a support network for them.

SUFFRAGETTE DIED IN PERTH

A suffragette died today in Perth, Australia, after a long campaign for women's suffrage.

She had been active in the movement for many years, and her death is a great loss to the cause.

Two boys kidnap a servant

Young boys kidnap a servant in a remote part of the country.

The servant was found safe and sound after a search was conducted.

The boys admitted to the crime and were charged with kidnapping.

TIE WEIGHED ON HER MIND

A woman was found dead in her home with a tie around her neck.

The tie was tied tightly around her neck, and the cause of death is still under investigation.

SUE FOR RICH COAL LANDS

A woman was awarded $500,000 in a lawsuit against a coal company.

The woman had been working on a coal mine for many years, and the company had denied her wages.

FELINE IS RASING RABBITS

A rabbit was raised by a cat in a small village.

The cat had been living in the village for many years, and she had adopted the rabbit as her own.

The rabbit was given a name and fed by the cat, and it is now living a happy life in the village.

L'ABEILLE DE LA NOUVELLE-ORLEANS, PERIODIQUE LITTERAIRE, 3 JANVIER 1913