Established as l'Abeille de la Nouvelle-Orleans Sept. 1, 1827. Printed Daily in French and English.

NEW ORLEANS REE PUBLISHING CO., LTD., Publishers.

Rates of Subscription: Delivered by carrier in New Orleans by the month. mail outside of New Orleans per year 'y the single copy

I foreign countries per year

Junday edition alone, by the year

Sunday edition foreign countries, by the year

Entered as second-class mail matter, at the Postoffice

Office, 520 Conti St.

Telephone Main 3487

THE BEE WILL BE FOUND ON SALE AT THE FOLLOWING NEWSTANDS: O. E. Hill, 108 St. Charles. Gronere's I harmacy, Confi and bourbon.
Laporte, 101 St. Charles, Smoke House, 727 Herville, Arme Cig er Stand, 117 Royal.

St. Charles Hotel.
St. Charles Hotel.
Wolf Cigar, 122 Hoyal St.
Wallace, Canal and Royal.
Commonths Hotel Cosmopolitan Hotel. Hotel Grunewald. Bennett Photo Supply, 313 News Spand, Dauphine & Candl Marray, Caronelelet & Grittler Marray, Caronelelet & Charles, C. Oldman, 137 St. Charles, Charles News, Charles News, St Charles and Poydras.

Canal and Rampart.

THE TRIAL OF NICHOLAS ROMANOFF

The former czar of Russia is to be placed on trial at an early date, according to official announcement from Petrograd. Nicholas cannot be tried by a jury of his peers, very well. The other kings are now at daggers drawn and besides are relatives of his. The sight of 🕸 Nicholas in the hands of those his government has oppressed must be painful to his royal cousins, whose nights must be poisoned by the thought that they dare not lift a finger in his Nicholas will be lucky if he secures an unprejudiced jury in Russia, and if it makes any recommendation to mercy. The foreman is just as likely as not to have the verdict, neatly written out in the corner of his right hand vest pocket, when he takes the oath and before he hears the evidence. Democracies who free themselves from the yoke of autocracy are invariably annoyed by their former rulers, their theirs and descendants, even to the step children of their brothers in law and their grand mother's first husband's third cousins, hauging around for generations and trying to start something. France has had a host of royal pretenders dogging her footsteps and even countries with an established royal line, like England and Spain, have had the scious of kicked-out royal lines trying to make mischief. With such examples as these, Russia may conclude that safety lies in eliminating the entire Romanoff family.

Many people think that as Czar Nicholas chief failing was in not curbing the autocrat- day. They were with a party of bathers and most to destroy the illusion of a was personally a harmless sort of king, whose bund, he should be let off; but a student of history sizes up the situation in the following | noticed.

"Nicholas Romanoff was not the author of for more street paving. ezarism, but he was its instrument. When Fouquier-Tinville, judge of the revolutionary tribunal in Paris, became himself a defendant before its bar he pleaded that he had been but the ax of the terrorists. Is an ax punished? he asked. Justice answered yes. Nicholas himself was not the type of man or ruler to effectively impose or represent despotism in his own person. He was not a Peter nor a Louis the Grand. But there were those about him who had the ability and the ruthlessness Sto enforce absolutism in his name and he must answer for their acts done in his name.

"Charles I, although described in his indictment as a tyrant, a murderer and a public enemy, was not the personal tyrant that Henry WIII was for example. He had all the domestic virtues and, as Macaulay says, was fond of taking his little son on his knee and trotting him. But Charles was a bad king and could be bound by no oath. He governed illegally, betrayed at Oak Grove, passed resolutions in favor of Want Victory More Than Reform. his people, made war upon them and was put prohibition during the war. to death by form of law.

. "Louis XVI was a harmless king in his own person and loved much better to tinker at the Sinteresting trade of locksmith than to reign over France. But he was the fountain head of thateful system of oppression and had to suffer for its crimes. Nichoias Romanoff as celebration. ezar had neither the abilities of Charles nor the yirtues of Louis, and the tyranny that was exercised in his name was greater than Englishmen or Frenchmen suffered from under either. He is the hostage of despotism in the hands of a betrayed nation and must answer for despotism's crimes. It is preffy hard at best to find excuse for the institution of kingship, but if it ever had a reason for existing it was that it gave protection to and served the welfare of the people that maintained it. But Nicholas Romanoff never acknowledged such a contract with the people of Russia," المعالم المستوان المستوانية المستوانية المستوانية Organized labor in Germany is banded Rogether in twenty four unious which will make after-the-war problems easier of solution there then in England where the unions number between eleven hundred and twelve hundred, according to English authorities. Whether it is easier to deal with twenty four unions than with twelve hundred unions depends largely upon the temper of the unions. Twelve out of twelve hundred could not kick up much of a rumpus, but twelve out of twenty bond issue for the purpose of building a new Tour would create a sizable disturbance.

lruger, a missing high school girl, buried in a New York cellar, it is announced that more than 800 girls have disappeared from their homes in that city in six months. This hardly speaks well for the deterrent effects of "morality, fillums." According to the movie magnates, the screen presentation of scenes from the underworld will so disgust the spectators that the white slavers will be forced out of business. 🖇 🐃

Emma Goldman, the anarchist lady, has succeeded in having herself locked up again. Whenever contributions from the faithful beome scanty and subscribers to "Mother Earth" fail to come across, the New York policemen accommodatingly pinch Emma on some charge or other and the boobs are enthused to resume their contributions. Emma ought to split fifty-fifty with the police,

The appointment of Admiral Sims to take harge of the submarine campaign in Irish vaters, has been construed as a "compliment," out the submarine campaign is too carnest an affair for any exchange of "compliments" be- tiled by Mrs. Odile Brodtmann Him- Publishing Co., shonages, $221.20: ween nations. It is more likely that the British metreich. The assets are listed at admiralty picked out Sims as a good man for $9,573 and the claims at $688. In the the job.

LOUISIANA CONDENSED

'Miss Flournoy rescued Lieut, Hardin of Co. I, from drowning in the bayou at Chargaton.; ergl. Edmond A. Free of his company, who went to his assistance, was drowned.

Sidney Wade, a negro, assaulted an Italian woman and robbed the cash register in her store at Alexandria Thursday but was captur-cd. Saturday he drew a 20-year sentence. Prof. S. R. Cummins is in charge of the Hapides parish school affairs until a successor to Foolish to Expect MIISE · Miss Gladys Anderson aged 17 and Ellis Anderson, her brother, were drowned in bayou Teche near Breaux Bridge Sunday. They were dipping water from the bayon and fell in.

Monroe council has put off installing the one-man system" on its street cars till Septem- the Revolutionaryy party in Gerher. The railroad loses $15,000 to $25,000 a many by Dr. Rosemeier, formerly year and a cut is necessary.

Over 100,000 acres of rice is burning up in Calcasieu because the water is too sally to be used in irrigation.

Leo Landry and Clarence Martinez, two munication, to warn the press of young men of Baton Rouge, were drowned in the Entente countries, whether capthe Mississippi near Greenwell Springs Sun-Halistic or socialistic, to do its utsank so suddenly that their absence was not?

Lake Charles is about to let the contract make a revolution. What is indis-

Leesville has a Red Cross branch of .180 from the middle classes of the pagemembers, which raised $122.50 by a tag day celebration.

Jefferson Davis parish has a total assess- head the movement, and a parisament of $12,000,000 this year.

Roseland raised $250 for the Red Cross.

Shreveport is still clinging to the hope of being made an army training camp. The citi- the same time. zens this time hope to secure the Louisiana; Compare the Russian revolt with trades in preparation for lites du-National Guard.

court the inclusion of its lands in a drainage role of Rodzianko? We might per- sent H. B. Warner in "The Danger district in Vermilion parish. The lands are haps find a few Empelhardis; my Trai," Mr. Loomis will become at low marsh, used as a game preserve.

W. R. Goss and O. A. Wright, prominent ence in the German efficers' corps' will be shown continuously from to Shreveport citizens, had a "run-in" at the city of democrats, socialists, revolution- a, m. until 11 p. m. hall. Goss afterward accused Wright of hav- are a minority in whom no hope guba will have no ing a weapon; to-wif, a black jack or "billy" concealed on his person.

The Monroe district conference, in session

The Louisiana Jersey Breeders association without doubt a great majority dewill meet at the Sewman farm near Donald- sire reforms, but what they want sonville Thursday.

The Ouachita natural gas well is flowing at the rate of 29 million feet a day. Abheville is promoting a Fourth-of-July trade with North and South Amer-

R. A. Cotton, an employe of the Standard Oil to, at Balon Rouge, suicided by shooting Sun-But apart from these, the middle

Red Cross drive.

The Orleans-Kenner railway is asking the board of state affairs for a reduction of assess-

Alexandria Chamber of Commerce is trying to secure regular boat service between that city and New Orleans.

Lake Charles city commission has raised the salaries of its policemen. Rube Smith and W. J. Womack, accused of killing a negro in a turpentine camp near Alexandria were obliged to give $250 bail each. three months prior to the next har-Jesse Mullen, a negro convict, escaped from vest.

a levee camp at Lobdell. Welsh gave a minstrel show and netted over $100 for the Red Cross.

Two negroes were arrested in De Soto parish for failure to register. They pled ignorance of the law.

Lafayette has voted in favor of a $75,000

Following the finding of the body of Ruth ITEMS OUT OF THE ORDINARY FROM THF DAY'S COURT GRIND

The Bluefields Steamship com- the automobile. oany, which has been suing the nited Fruit company for $15,00,000 in the Pennsylvania courts, lost its | yesterday. The company had already lost in the Federal court, In its suit the Bluefields company alleged that the United Fruit company was a trust, and that its business methods made competition impossible. The Bluefields company is at present in a receivership, E. E. Wood, having charge of its affairs.

SUCCESSIONS TO BE CLOSED

Accounts in Court

Final accounts were filed by the a ministrators yester lay in civil cession of Charles A. Bredtmann, a schedule of assets and claims was Isuccession of Nita Fallon, John G. Blanche Regan; separation; E. ward Joe Monier and Victor Bijon colered, read's staff remained on duty Rostmeyer, files a schedule showing Ellsen vs. Mamie Ellsen separation: admitted to the police that they had throughout Sanday and the greater Hassets of $13.652, and claims aggregatinz $10,087.

HUSPAND TO SAVE ALIMONY;

see i her husband for a separation National Brewing Co. et al., mandadaim for alimony and asks, instead, tration, $138.70; Philip Henry Hull that she be granted the residence at [vs. Bernadotte Lynch, divorce,

... 5838 Catina street, and custory

MINOR'S INTEREST $29,798

The interest of the miners, Jeffrey appeal to the United States Circuit and Carrie Steinhard, in the estate the Stores of the Nelson company Court of Appeals at Philadelphia of the late Simon Steinhardt, is turned their attention to Store No. placed at $28,798, according to a schedule filed with the court. This represents a one-fourth of the interest of Steinhardt in the firm of The robbery was discovered yester-Simon Steinhardt and Co., cotton- cay morning by Manager Peter Ferseed products.~

estituted in civil district court; Succession of Jos. Brisbois; Morris R. Rosen vs. H. Kushner, sequestration; Salvatore Ferrar vs. Frank found in front of the residence of Two Administrators File Their Final Winston and Jules Battista, notes, Mrs. Charles Wild. 1761 Tehoupi-350; T. Dumas and Sons Co., Ltd., vs. Wlibum G. McIntyre, sequestration, $774.50; succession of Michael Dixon, possession; succession of courts in two succession. In the suc- Richard Howland Hooper: Atherf L. West vs. Isabella Tamber, divorce;; Gustave Loeffel, vs. Daily States stacession of Meyer Dreifus, adacinistration; Henry A. Otis vs. Mary emancipation of Louis Artique; intendiction of John J. Higgins, Jr.; authorization of Mrs. Honey Himmelreich to horrow; tutor of Chas. lafer showed the police where it. WIFE GETS THE PROPERTY Dugme; Wi low Louise Molice vs. Capille Primm, executory process Mrs. Lucille Duubar Verges, who [81,400; state extrel, Adolph Katz vs.

be in New Orleans Thursday next.

and will lecture at the Empire theater at 3 p. m. and 8 p. m. On that days the Empire wall present, under the auspices of Mr. Joomis, a pictare called "The Shrine of Chilif-he od and Womanhood," which was:

made by Essanay as a special featacros of land at Mooseheart. Bear

Chicago, which they have dedicated as a university and training school gripping story which makes the sage is expected.

BLOW CAUSES INSANITY

struck on the side of the head with a baseball bat. Physicians say that

NEGRO LABORER FALLS

slightest chance of a successful rev-ions. I learn that the battle on the dution in Germany.

Joseph Daniel, a 41-year-old negro-the blow caused his insanity.

Through its exclusive news sources in Europe the International News Service has just received this inter-Mr. C. J. Loumis, National Direcesting and illuminating account of for of the Supremie Ledge of the World Loyal Order of Moose, will now in Switzerland: I have been expressly remested they the German revolutionaries, with whom I am in constant com-editor of the Berlin Morgen Post and

German Revolt

The German pro etariat, with the aid of a few intellectuals, cannot ants, or better, both these classes; also, if possible, military aid, with fartillery and officers who world ment to give the revention its moral support.

In the Petrograd revolution all and with great human appeal. these elements came into force at Meoscheart, with its 5,000 boy and

The Rockefeller Foundation is testing in see the Reichstan revolting, with parties Shrine of Childhood", which is the aged Dr. Kacapt playing the in four reels, the Empire will precorrespondents guarantee the exist- 3 p. m. and 8 p. m. but both pictures can be placed. In any case, where could we find the regiments, especially guard regiments, to make the revolt a success?

As to the German middle classes, still more is a German victory. An exception is perhaps formed by the husiness men, who fear the effect the submarine war will have upon ica and the Far East. So exasperated are they that they might give financial support to a revolution. classes still look out to the battle Plaquemines parish raised $10,000 in the front with the same confidence, if not with the same enthusiasm, as they aid at the beginning. They consider the Hindenburg —or Siegfried-line absolutely unbreakable. That is also the opinion of the great mass of people in Germany.

A fiindenburg line that can never be pierced, a submarine war that will sooner or later force England to her knees, a Russian revolution that will, as most people believe, end in a separate peace, these are the hree props for the courage of the German people during the critical

The strike of a million workers in April was a question of stomach: once it began to take on a political aspect It was promptly stiffed.

No Chance for Revolution

German revolutionaries believe the best service that can now be rendered to their cause is for pactfists and advanced liberals in Entente countries to labor no longer under the delusion that there is the the plan.

The gang of thieves who have been making a specialty of robbing 1 at Felicity and Muzazine streets TO FORT RILEY, 16 MILLIONS sometime during Monday night, and carried off groceries valued at $51. cara. of 618 Frenchmen street, and

An investigation showed that the The following actions have been thieves had scaled a fence on the Felicity street side, and cut a panel out of the back spor of the store. Yesterday worning also there was teulas street, a push-cart which the i reported to the police.

goods from one of the Nelson stores Saturday hight. Asadore Esclusa, a junk dealer of 1738 Bourbon street, is held for revalued at $20 from the yard of P. and sold it to Aschisa. The latter at orders and wiring same to mills, first denied having the ketfle; but Capitan Jold the police that a name 1,000,000 feet of lumber needed for her of articles, altogether valued at the Louisville, Ky., cantonment, $70, had been taken from his place. The long-distance telephone was recently on the alleged ground of neis; Newsurs Boisdore vs. Maggie secently, but the kettle that was called into service to find empty desertion, filed a supplemental per AltoRrd, liverce; T. Danies and Sons the first he reported. The two ner cars at mills available for instant fition yesterday. She abandons her to. Ltd., vs. George Bryand seques- grees, according to the police, ad- bodding. This order being emermit they took all the property and zency, it was necessary to get the closin, they sold it to E-clusa for week under way at once and have $5,85. This the junkman lent see the police Count Station cash. An- mean San Antonio, Tex -ted claims that he won the money in a gambling game, and refused to turn it over. He will be sent back to Hammond.

C Martin Heiderigh, at 2116 Magamade to the police vesterday, and 825. The intruder also took a eleck from the office, but dropped it in for their members. This was used and the committee on campisanita. Beide & Law. by Essanay as a background for the (fien of the National Medical associ picture of especial interest to memhers of the Lodge, "The Shrine of Childhood," or as Mr. Loctus some-Rather than hold up the entire work, building of the following additional times designates it, "The Salvation of Ralph Brown," is a true pature. In we re per was obtained from Jacks wille. Fla. to be built at of home life, a picture true to life. Congress the contractors are to go Hillyer, Pepry & Bonn: Tour of egirl students, working at various, the situation in Germany. Do you ties, is well pictured. In addition to retary Paker will ask Congress for Point, Md., by the Maryland Ship-

The Order of the Moose owns 1,000 DRAFT FOR THE NATIONAL ARMY

Continued on Page Two

> Baker said. "It is hard to see how wooden vesse's. ver, before October 1."

MORE DEATH PENALTY Hayana, June 26. The Senate today by a vote of 47 to 1 approved a bill to abolish the death penalty in Cuba. The measure was sent unmediately to the House, where its pas-That George Labostrie, negro, was driven insane through a blow on the side of the head, was the disevery made by the police yesterhe has relatives dependent upon to accept the material. da, Last Thursday the negro was him, Continuing, this official said:

"It is not true that every marriedman will be exempted. That was the first plan proposed, but later we got clear away from that idea. The question of whether a man is married does not figure in the regulalaborer, lost his balance while at | tion. The determining factor is work yesterday on the obl Crescent whether he has persons really de-Brewery, Canal and Claiborne, and pendent on him for support, either fell thirty feet to the ground. He a wife or children, an old mother or suffered injuries about the hips and father. To Take Some Married Men

"No man who can show an actual egal dependent will be taken, but married men whose labor at home is not needed to support their families Regarding the military operawill be taken."

"Suppose the case of a man with a western front is costing us very wife and baby dependent on him for support, but the man has never heavily in human lives, Recent calls to men yet unmobilized for actually worked. He has an indehealth reasons have furnished an pendent income. His family is dependent on his income, but not his appreciable number of reserves. To labor. What about that near?" was replace these men it was proposed to liberate the older classes still asked.

"The decision will be left to the with the active army, but it is local exemption board, but it is the doubtful whether this will be done. intention of the department, under The compulsory civil service law the rules it has prepared, that the has so far only been applied to the man should go to war. So would working classes, but I hear well-tothe man who is living off his wife's do people will now be affected by

OF LUMBER NORTH

FROM SOUTHERN PINE MILLS STARTED MONDAY

Lumber for Twenty-four Vessels Ordered During the Past Week. Other Orders Coming Soon

Southern pine mills are to-day empleting shipment of the first entire cantenment schedule provided for the government's war, needs, This lumber, which totals 16,315,209 icet, and goes to Fort Riley, Kan., brann moving Monday morning as soon as loading crews could be put robbers has used in carrying off to work after manufacturers had been notified by wire Sunday of the portion of the order each was Advices were received Saturday ceiving stolen property as the re- night by the Southern Puse Emersult of the theft of a copper kettle gency bureau of the Fort Riley re-A. Capolau, 940 Elysian Fields avenue, against any possible delay. The bustolen the kettle Monday evening part of Sunday night, proportioning

. Quick Shipment to Louisville

Arranzements were also made was concealed under a pile of razs. Sanday for immediate shipment of The Louis r en rock 22

Stoney Ansted, aged 20, a mem- Aside from Fort Riley and Louiser of Company L. was accested yes. Talle, the bureau has been instructthinkly in ming as he left the boar oil to prepare to handle rish orders a Monegoria, on a charge of grand soon for gard appents at Chillicothe, professed by the authoric Ohie; Fort Lugan Roof, near Little ies of Hammond. On his person Rock, Ark, and Fort Sam Houston,

Many Ships To Be Building in South Soon

Ten additional ship selegibles were placed with mills yesterday, A thief entered the furniture store eight of which will go to Noack, Conn., and two to Madisonville, La. zine street, according to a report. This makes a total of 24 arranged for during the past week the 11 stole automobile custions values at previous to go to Newark, N. J., and Hampton Roads, Va., ten to the former and four to the latter. The Madisonville work will be done by the Jahneke Navigation company, of New Orleans. Other ship schedules to be delivered soon include; six to Mergan City, La., for the Union Bridge and Construction commany, and fesic to Beaumont, Tex., for Mc

. The bureau has been unofficially ciation, it became knewn that See, advised that the United States Shipretary Baker had ordered materia' pitr: Board Emergency Fleebeorpocharges in the cantonment plans, indion will shortly authorize the for a long period of time, while we deen ships in the South; four at ahead on the present plans, making wither Savannah or Brunswick, Ga., only such medifications as will not thy the American Shipburiding comdelay Them materially. Later Ser- pany, et New York; see at Sparrows additional money to construct new building company, of Baltimore; populings at each cantonment site to four at Jacksonville Fla., by John carry out the sanitary ideas sng. M. Murdoch. Material for four ad-Editional ships will also be sent to "I have no réason to believe we Neack, Conn., where the Groton won't get the national army in camp. Iron Works, of New York, has conby around September 1." Secretary Tracts for the construction of 12 all the plans can be completed, how- : General George Goethals, director by the United States Shipping Board Interest in the camp preparations, Emergency Fleet corporation, rehowever, is overshadowed right now (cently accepted the offer of Southby the exemption regulations that ern joine manufacturers to furnish shortly are to be forthcoming. If [materia's for 100 complete wooden is known, of course, there will be ships, and much of these timbers is class exemptions. An official who expected to be moved to shipbuildhas been working with the Presinting points during July and August. dent and the Secretary of War in Shipbuilding materials ordered a perfecting the regulations said that few days ago are already in process every care had been taken to make of manufacture, and shipments will as certain as possible the exemp- commence this week if there is no tion of every man who can prove delay in securing cars or inspectors

FIGALLO'S 52 YEARS LIFE

Best Italian Restaurant in City 722 IBERVILLE ST. Anthony Guiffria, Prop.

CHAMPION PETE HERMAN'S

BUCKHORN CAFE

121 Burgundy St. GASPER GULOTTA, Mor. Phone Main 4007, New Orleans, La

FREE BASEBALL RETURNS DAILY