CONTENT OF OUR SATURDAY'S EXTRA.

10 DAYS LATER FROM LONDON.

By the way of Halifax, we have, through the Boston papers, London dates to the evening of October the 4th, which we hasten to lay before our readers. They announce the capture of Aleppo by the Turks; the formation of a new French Ministry, at the head of which is Marshal Soult; warlike preparations on the Northern frontiers, 100,000 men having been gathered there; an unsuccessful attack upon Oporto by the Miguelite troops; and contrac-tict the reported death of the King of Spain.

Says a London date of the evening of Oct.

the 4th, "The King of Spain, although not out of danger, is improving in his health, and hopes are entertained of his recovery. Madrid has remained tranquil during his illness, but troops had been marched to its vicinity, with a view to the possibility of popular disturbances in the event of his death, and of a disputed succession between his daughter Don Carlos."

Private letters from friends of freedom in Germany give but little reason to expect that any resistance will be made to the Frankfort protocols either by sovereigns or subjects.

The people are represented as indignant, but not by any means prepared for resistance; indeed the thought of the later does not appear to have entered into their minds.

Accounts from Frankfort on the Maine state that on the 21st ult., a violent attack was made upon the King of Bavaria as he approached the gates of the city. A mob collected and peled him with stones, and he had to have received serious injury.

Troops to a heavy amount are gathered on the northern frontier of France, and the government is making preparations for immediate war in that quarter. The number of troops from Dunkirk to Givet is estimated at 100,000 men. Troops are stayed. By order of the court.
