A BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HAIR is the ornament of gradual ornaments belonging to the human frame. How strangely the loss of it changes the whole countenance and prematurely brings on the appearance of old age, which causes many to feel it being uncovered, and sometimes even to absent scene to avoid the pity and sneers of their acquaintances; the remainder of their hairs are consequently spontaneously thrown off, and even the loss of property is not half so grievous to the thinking youth with that heavy sinking gloom as does the loss of his hair. To avert all these unpleasant circumstances, OLDRIDGE'S BALM OF COLUMBIA propose their hair falling off on the first application, and a few bottles restores it again. It likewise produces eyebrows and whiskers; prevents the hair from turning grey, makes it curl beautifully, and brown it to a fine pearl. Numerous certificates of the first respectability in support of the virtues of O Bridge's Balm, are shown by the proprietors.

☞ Read the following:

ROBERT WHARTON, late late Mayor of Philadelphia, has certified, as may be seen below, to the high character of the following gentlemen.

The undersigned do hereby certify that we have used the Balm of Columbia discovered by J. Oldridge, and have found it highly successful, not only as a preservative against the falling off of hair, but also a certain restorative.

John Gard, Jr. 123 Arch st.

The public and those who possess or wish to wigs, may not always experience its restorative qualities, yet it will certainly rank as a source in the estimation of the public, when it is known that three of the above engineers are more than 50 years of age, and the others not less than 30.

From the Mayor
Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
City of Philadelphia.

I, ROBERT WHARTON, mayor of said city of Philadelphia, do hereby certify that I am well acquainted with Messrs J. P. Inglis, John S. Ivory, Hugh McCurdy, whose names are signed to the above certificate, that they are gentlemen of character and respectability and as much full credit should be given to the said certificate.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the city to be affixed, this 8th day of [illegible] A. D.
