A BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HAIR is the greatest ornament belonging to the human frame. How strangely the loss of it changes the countenance of persons by bringing on the appearance of old age, which cause many to repent at being unadvised, and sometimes even to shun society to avoid the ridicule and sneers of their acquaintances; the remainder of their lives are consequently spent in retirement. In case of even the loss of property fills the generous mind with such that have nothing glorious done to their hair. To every afflicted, the proprietor of Old Dr. ELDRIDGE'S BALM OF COLUMBIA wishes the hair from falling off on the first application, and if used for three months it never fails. Nor does it produces excoriations and whitening of the skin, but from its cooling great, makes it cool beautifully, and for softness of scent. Numerous certificates of the first respectability in support of the virtues of Eldridge's Balm, are shown by the proprietors.

Sold at 78 Baronne street.

ROBERT WHARTON, Esq. late Mayor of Philadelphia, has certified, on oath, to the truth of the following, in the handwriting of the following gentlemen.

The undersigned do hereby certify that we have used the Balm of Columbia discovered by Dr. Eldridge, and have found it highly serviceable not only as a dressing, but also as the falling off of hair, but to a certainty is operative.
