The Richenend Sould has a special dispatch charging the administration with duplicity and conceaiment, in regard to its instructions of Commodore Pauliding. The writer says:

The administration is anxious to escape its responsibility for Walker's capture. It is publishing the general orders seased to the Home Squadron, but the fact is carefully concealed that particular instructions had been communicated, a portion of which was to the effect that the expedition, if it escaped interception on the sea, might be captured while debarking. Walker has no hope of being reinstated in Nicaragua by this government.
