The New Orleans Bee.

Office, 75 Chartres street.

NEW ORLEANS, THURSDAY MORNING, MARCH 27, 1862. Vol. XXXIV.—Whole No. 12,188.

NEW ORLEANS:
THURSDAY MORNING, MARCH 27, 1862.

SUBSCRIPTIONS BY THE WEEK.

The carriers of the Bee are authorized to receive subscriptions to continue at the rate of 25 cents a week, payable in all cases to the carrier bringing.

Auction Sales Next Day.

By J. S. Green, at 12 o'clock, on Gravier street, a lot of furniture.

By E. Vignie, at 10 o'clock, at the Merchants and Auctioneers' Exchange, on Bienville street, also, two lots of ground in the Second District, and vacant in the parish of Jefferson, also, a cisterny cable lower loop on Hagatay street.

We will gobble situated in the rear lot of talented boys of said locality will take place to-day, at 10 o'clock, by E. Vignie, auctioneer, at the Merchants and Auctioneers' Exchange, Bienville street, between Camp and Chartres streets. Sale positive and without reserve to effect a dissolution between Perry Vessel's heirs.

AFRICANIZATION AND CHANGING.

From the most authentic accounts it would appear that the bill creating the office of Commanding General has not become a law—in other words, it has not received the Executive veto. Nevertheless, it is probable that General Robert E. Lee has been charged with the conduct of military operations in the armies of the Confederacy, and has been assigned to duty at the seat of Government. General Lee is an officer of eminent merit. When attached to the United States service he enjoyed the unlimited confidence and esteem of General Scott. It was by Lee that Harper's Ferry was made when Scott being asked why he could not march upon Richmond so easily and so expeditiously as Patterson, replied that there was but one Lee in the army. Lee is the only officer in the United States service who