ROCKETS NEXT HOME GAME

Rocket's next home game is Wednesday Aug 19th at 8pm vs Calgary Kickers

The Rockets are pleased to host the under 12 boys from Castro Libero, a prominent community in Cosenza.

The Castro Libero team has for years provided outstanding talent to the Cosenza team. Castro Libero will play an exhibition game against the Armourdale under 12 team, last years Ont. Cup finalists and league and Cup Champions at 6pm Wednesday.

SPECIAL GUESTS

The North York Rockets would like to welcome CHIN Radio station, the staff of Mother's Restaurant and the Media personalities playing in the First mother's vs Media Soccer Game.

Rockets new coach Pedro Kosak has learned two important factor about his young team. The lack of physical conditioning and to greater extent they have been cursed by disastrous luck. The Rockets suffered two heart-breaking defeats, with the identical 2-1 score to league leader Hamilton Steelers. The Rockets new coach Kosak played soccer in his native Argentina with first division team.

This year he has been involved with the O.S.A. as the under 14 provincial coach. A student of the game, Kosak has completed his coaching courses in Canada as well as the national coaching course in Argentina. Kosak spent two months working with the Argentina National Youth Team and River Plate coaching staff as special observer.

In addition to the coach, the Rockets have called on a three game trial permits, Tony Tata, Steve Byrne and John Farren, all loaned for the season to Inter Salvarnia and Peter Pakeman from Toronto Emerald. James Grimes, presently with the Canada National Team playing in the Pan-American games, is also expected to join the Rockets at the conclusion of the tournaments. The Rockets will play Calgary, in an unusual Wednesday night game on August and then host the Blizzards next Sunday. With back-to-back games with both the Blizzards and Ottawa, the Rockets could act as spoiler for either team in their race for second place. Obviously the Steelers appear well secured in first place.
