Capricorn (22nd December – 19th January)

Delays from obstacles and lack of stability makes it harder to give shape to your work or finances. Thoughts of money are dominating matters and bring its burdens. Don't take risks or go into extreme situations and don't give up aiming for your goals from tensions. Approach setbacks differently in your finances, when delays and problems approach or even if there's enough money you still feel limited somehow but its only temporary. You may have had enough of a certain situation but don't know how to let go or leave from it. Expect news, communications, new plans, contract and documents to arrive. Don't doubt your future prospects as this will block the path to success you are already on.

Aquarius (20th January – 18th February)

Things may seem out of balance or unjust. Your hopes and wishes seem to be dashed or unanswered at present. Things are changing for the better though. Anticipate a few favours in your direction soon. Listen and trust your intuition and also in your love life. You are likely to gather strength and wait for the right time to act in future. You are having vivid dreams and it's full of messages so pay attention to them. Put your fears aside but don't accept things at face value as there could be more issues hidden within it. Make decisions but don't take risks without thinking about the consequences. The work load improves in your career as people come to help you carry the burdens.

Pisces (19th February – 20th March)

Don't lose faith as things are improving and a period of hard work should soon end. You are to make use of your best possible alternative to succeed and have a new approach to progress and adjust your plan of action. You have a consuming passion and bondage with money this month. You are challenged to take responsibility towards spiritual growth and to be more tolerant of others. You're indecisive and reluctance, you may be concerned about a child or travel plans being delayed. Overall you start to feel healing has taken place as you mend your past hurt. You try to understand why things were the way they were and try to move on again.

Aries (21st March – 20th April)

You feel ready for responsibilities and to share your burdens with others. Fortune, luck and change is coming that will bring new things and a different environment. Be open to this positive change. You have strength, authority, self discipline and pragmatism despite the limitations that confront you. You re-evaluate how you spend your money on yourself, friends or loved ones. You want to please all but feel restricted. You are challenged to be more sympathetic and intuitive, don't be fickle and stay away from arguments. You behave carefree, optimistic and spontaneous as you start an exciting journey with a fresh look at things. There's nostalgia as you dig past happy memories.

Taurus (21st April – 20th May)

You now show your power, authority, strengths and conviction. You contemplate your future as the decisions you make now will make an impact on your life and finances, especially if you are planning a new venture. There's a new beginning where you use your energy and enthusiasm to put plans into action. Think back of your past and challenge the memories, you may find a solution. Old wounds are mending and you start to think clearly as you overcome negative thought patterns in relationships. You have good partnerships around. You are also treating yourself well materially and spiritually, keen to pursue success so that you always have access to wealth.

Gemini (21st May – 21st June)

You are going through mental changes with fresh ways of thinking towards progress. Choices are presented as two paths to you, go wherever your heart leads you. All kinds of negotiations and agreements are expected to be settled. You are showing your gentle nature with regard to finances and may use your intuition to make decisions on them. Have more faith and courage to face life as you'll overcome your weaknesses and make the best of present circumstances. Your emotions and love life are turning for the better. In your business or career you let go and take a risk with optimism to the new exciting changes. Overall you seek something more as you've outgrown an old situation. There is also a new era to an improved way of living with your closest relations.

Cancer (22nd June – 23rd July)

You're emotionally confused and exhausted from an endless search for perfection in work or love. You fear major changes but you shouldn't resist them or remain in this stagnant phase. There may be a difficult situation but don't let your emotions erupt, also be rational and logical with your finances. Delays around but don't take any rash decisions in your career plans, you face challenges as it comes, break a new mould and are backing your planning. Rifts are being healed in your closest relationships, a return of hope and you are ready to forgive and start anew.

Leo (23rd July – 22nd August)

Make a decision between two alternatives and face your fears. Your commitment to a project at present shall reap you rewards soon. You grow spiritually, strengthen your strained relationships, you initiate plans and your love life develops further. Positive changes are ahead in your career, so a difficult period is to end. Challenge your opposition when your fire is burning low and recover your strength. There is a danger of being dominated by money and balancing budgets, expect small sums of financial losses.

Virgo (23rd August – 22nd September)

You have doubts surrounding your future plans, but be optimistic these are just negative thoughts. There's competition and you're cautious but determined to go ahead as it is not the time to give up. Expect lots of news, communications, contracts and documents be about a plan, use your sharp mind to focus and avoid scattering your energy. It's a good time to look for new opportunities and experience a new beginning in your finances. You are challenged of not to be dominated by material possessions and balance money fairly. In your career don't let past sorrow experiences slow you down. Think about your emotions to get a clear perspective of what you desire. Overall you feel secure and content on gaining material stability.

Libra (23rd September – 23rd October)

It is certain that something is ending but transformation will follow, promising a new life once you are free on an old one. You are ambitious, planning towards your goals methodically to put serious efforts towards your project. You will be leaving behind a safe situation to look for something more challenging and adventurous. A balanced approach is needed on your finances, perhaps a professional body can give help, but eventually matters will be resolved in your favour. Delays and change of plans slow you down but if you rush you are likely to make mistakes, so you need to stop and think of your pre-actions as you can fail to grasp an opportunity when it arises. Don't doubt your future plans. The tensions in your relationship is keeping you awake at night, this is only a phase though. Expect some happy emotional news, a proposal or an invitation.

Scorpio (24th October – 21st November)

So your plans may have been big but what thwarted it was lack of full planning and enthusiasm. You should keep on putting hard work no matter as success is on the horizon. Thoughts of money are dominating matters and you feel burdened by monetary responsibilities. Avoid risk taking or going to extremes. A new project will be delayed but remain committed. You are entering back into an active life as your period of confinement and isolation is over. Avoid running away from your emotions, as it can cloud your way of looking at your love life. Your wishes are coming through in your career, positive changes are ahead and your faith remains. It's time to relate to your inner needs, acknowledge what it is that you truly want.

Sagittarius (22nd November – 21st December)

You may feel emotionally confused where it is hard to see the way ahead, but you actively pursue an adventure with determination to succeed. Making important decisions and adapting to the changes in your current life path. There may be hurdles but the wheel will turn to your favour soon. You are committed to building solid foundations in your finances. Use more of your creative or intuitive impulses this month. You may feel out of place or in a dream state and unresolved issues may come back. You need to cut the cords and move on from your past. The past is holding you back and blocking progress, a fresh start in your life or love life is required. Watch out for your health as temporarily you can feel ruined. Don't ignore your intuition and it's messages this month.
