

SMALL SCALE GARDENS/FARMING FOR RURAL AND URBAN LOCALES IN THE DEVELOPING WORLD

INSTRUCTORS:
LUC MONZES and JEN UNGEMACH
VIA ORGANICA.org

JUNE 20-24, 2011
SAN MIGUEL DE ALLENDE, GTO, MEXICO

Day 1

- 8am-9am: Registration and Introduction.
9am-9:30am: Organic agriculture.
9:30-10:30am: Food sovereignty challenges and opportunities in Mexico.
10:30-11:30am: San Miguel's limited resources.
11:30-12 pm: Working with the local and state governments to restore the Tambula Picacho watershed with Atahualpa Caldera of Gaia, A.C.
12pm-1pm: Lunch.
1pm-2pm: Mexican national farmers market network.
2pm-3pm: Organic food certification models in Mexico.
3pm-4pm: Organic Consumers Association work in the US and Mexico.

Day 2

- 8am-11am: Urban gardening hands-on workshop.
11:30-12pm: Via Organica's store and cafe visit.
12pm-1pm: Lunch.
1pm-4pm: Urban gardening workshop continued.

Day 3

- 8am-9am: Tour of the Via Organica Farm School.
9am-9:30am: Ancient Chinese clay pot watering system demonstration.
9:30-12pm: Introductory workshop to the Biointensive gardening method.
12pm-1pm: Lunch.
1pm-4pm: Biointensive gardening workshop continued

Day 4

- 8am-10am: Compost-making workshop.
10am-12pm: Soil block plant propagation demonstration.
12pm-1pm: Lunch.
1pm-4pm: Open pollinated seed-saving workshop.

Day 5

- 9am-2pm: Field trip to a campesino (rural Mexican) training center, CEDESA A.C., which has adopted and taught sustainable living strategies for the past 40 years in the state of Guanajuato, Mexico.
12pm: Lunch at CEDESA.
2pm-3:30pm: Round table discussion and conclusions.

COST:

$625/$525 USD - Regular Tuition/Early Bird Tuition (paid by April 25)

$15 USD - 3 meals/day.

$10 USD - Dorm/night.

$5 USD - Camping/night with use of showers and bathroom.

Sign up early for the full month course stream and save $600!!!
(discount and free lodging)

Register at www.iCATIS.org

For more info, please contact: informes@tierraycal.com