C03     Do You Really Want a Clone?
Paul Higgins

This session describes how the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce cloned a large IMS application and dealt with various interfaces such as MQ and Frontend Switch (FES) in a shared queue environment. The benefits were to achieve true 24/7 availability for a very important banking application.