

A Business Partner Solution for the Industrial and Financial Services Sectors

Allowing for Decisions that are Better Aligned to Business Goals

Sky Solutions, LLC

Business Ready Performance Management

Solution Description

To be successful in today's highly competitive global markets, companies must optimize their efficiencies and effectiveness and focus on business results. To increase performance, all levels of the organization must be aligned with the company's goals, while having the flexibility to adjust and react promptly to ever-changing market needs.

Sky Solutions Business-Ready Performance Management offering provides a pre-packaged business intelligence solution for the Manufacturing and Banking industries. The solution consists of an implementation methodology, pre-populated repository of strategy maps, Key Performance Indicators (KPI), and a Return on Investment (ROI) tool. Additionally, performance views (e.g., scorecards, dashboards, a reporting framework and analytical capabilities) provide a straightforward view of performance against company strategy.

Features & Benefits

The Business Ready Performance Management solution has been developed to synchronize with the way information is consumed by management at all levels of the organization. Benefits include:

- Pre-defined Strategy Maps for Manufacturing and Distribution
- Pre-defined Performance and Optimization Areas
- KPI Repository aligned with Industry best practices
- Measurement against industry internal benchmarks
- Predefined scorecards, dashboards, analytics, reports and alerts aligned with company strategies
- A proven methodology to ensure a successful implementation

Value Proposition

Sky Solutions is a leader in the implementation of performance management solutions that allow businesses to maximize success with minimal risk. This innovative solution leverages IBM technologies to help accelerate time to results, reduced implementation risk and a single procurement source.
