Replacement Product Information: For any migration from an OS/2®, VSE/CICS®, or Unisys 2200 Series repository to a new repository environment, contact your IBM representative.

Replacement Guidelines

- A 50% minimum reduction will apply toward the primary license charge (PLC) for the new repository platform.

- When migration occurs, the existing workstations will be connected to the new repository platform.

- The then-current annual license charge (ALC) will have to be paid for these workstations and the server part of this new development environment.

Trademarks

VisualAge, CICS, and OS/2 are registered trademarks of International Business Machines Corporation in the United States or other countries or both.
