Train and certify for no charge

Most WebSphere Education courses include no-charge certification

Highlights:

- Most WebSphere Education courses include no-charge certification

- Validate the skills you build in your training with IBM Professional Certification

- Certify to realize the career growth, productivity and potential salary benefits of IBM Professional Certification credentials

- Choose from over 25 WebSphere certifications for developers, administrators, deployers and business analysts

Certifying is a smart decision. Not only does certification validate the skills you build through your WebSphere training and on-the-job experience, but may provide benefits that impact your career, your productivity and your bottom line.

- In a recent Prometric study, 79% of certified professionals reported that their new certification will help speed their career growth.*
- Prometric also found that 77% of certified professionals reported that they believe they can solve problems they encounter faster.*
- A 2011 Global Knowledge study found those who train for certification purposes show a 5.4% higher average salary than those who do not.*
