HORSES RAID ENDURANCE TRAINER INSTRUCTOR CONSULTANT

Cesar Tacias, Passion, Patience, Care, Training for Endurance horses, Instruction for riders and teams, Consultant.

Cesar Tacias is a professional dedicated specifically to training endurance horses and to be endurance instructor for endurance riders and competition teams as well as been a Consultant for owners or equestrian Centers. Every animal has a unique personality and disposition. Because of this, every animal needs to be trained differently. This requires a unique trainer, with a wide range of experience and a wealth of knowledge. Also each person is unique and for that reason an experience and proved instructor is the only one that can make improve this person or a team. What is always needed for endurance, and for practice any kind of sport and as a way to improve your self is the expert guidance of someone like Cesar Tacias.

César Tacias, a very experienced endurance rider, began competing in endurance when he still was a child, on his father's side, also a big enthusiast of this sport. César's large experience and important career in the high competition brought him to develop into trainer not only of his own horses, but also from the ones from other competitors.

The study and consideration of each horse, the observation of its qualities and possible disadvantages, allow Tacias to design the personalized training. Adviser of endurance riders both designing training programs and teaching about the use of systems and products, César Tacias has been the horse trainer of a saudian rider, sharing his success in European and World Championships, in international competitions in Ireland, Great Britain, Jordan, Qatar, France, UAE, Saudi Arabia and Spain.

In 1999 Tacias was declared as the best endurance trainer in Newmarket (England).

Tacias spent two seasons in the Arabian Emirates, preparing horses for a Sheik.
