

John C. Evans

Johny Evans (born 14 August 1967, Liverpool) is a football coach, and a member of the FA Licensed Coaches Club. He is currently with Warrington Town FC in the Evo Stik Northern Premier League 1st Division North with Shaun Reid, coaching, and providing match analysis and reports.

CAREER

Evans, grew up in Kirkby, Merseyside but has played non-league football in areas where his work took him. Between 1985 – 1999 Evans played football in the north-West, the South East and the Midlands, playing as high as Step 2 one below conference level. In a career littered with injuries, he had spells with Kirkby Town, Uxbridge FC, Hayes FC, Enfield FC, Banbury United FC and Middlewich Town FC. In total Evans played over 260 times at semi-pro level, scoring 25 times.

Coaching

In 2000 Evans moved out of senior football and began working with Youth teams. For the next 11 years he progressed with various Cheshire Youth Teams including Sandbach United, Davenham and Middlewich Town, finishing as Assistant Manager for Middlewich Town U18's in the 2010/11 season.

In the summer of 2011 he joined Jimmy Quinn at Nantwich Town in the Evo Stik NPL Premier Division as a coach, and was offered the role of U18 Manager. However after only one training session with the U18's he left to join Alsager Town as the Reserve Team Manager, playing in the Staffordshire County Senior League Division 1. In his first season he led the team to promotion to the Premier Division, the first time in their history. This was achieved by improving goals scored, and reducing goals conceded, taking the team from a -15 goal difference in the 2010 season, to a +30 goal difference in the 2011 season, a swing of +45.

In May 2012 he left Alsager Town and joined Shaun Reid at Warrington Town.
