NOTE.—The above slaves were selected at different periods from the various arrivals at this port during the last eight or ten years, and, in order to obtain none but the very best, the highest market prices were paid, and whenever they proved indifferent or ordinary, they were immediately re-sold, and their place supplied by others, so that those now remaining may, with great propriety, be considered equal to any set of servants in this or any state. They are all thoroughly acclimated, and with a few exceptions, (which will be explained at the time and place of sale) guaranteed against the diseases and vices peculiar to slaves.

Terms.—One fourth cash, and the balance in 6, 12 and 18 months credit, for notes drawn and secured to the satisfaction of the testamentary executor, and secured by mortgage until final payment, or satisfactorily endorsed notes, secured by mortgage on having longer than 2 or 4 months to run will be received in lieu of the cash payments by adding interest on the former at the rate of six, and on the latter, at the rate of eight per cent per annum. ... nov 19
