Cholera, says:

This dreadful scourge meems to be progressively descending the Tonsas, and is now with in six miles of us.

On Sunday evening last, we understand three cases occurred at the plantation of Mr. Win Stanton, (formerly Hovey's,) two of which proved, speedily fatal.

Six ROE HALL STORM—Our town was visited on Friday last by a basicarom, accompanied by thunder and hightining, which, for severity, we have rarely seen equalled. Buildstones fell of an extraordinary size—we saw three, picked up at rannoun and placed upon a sail, which weighed a quarter of a pound. Three of the telegraph posts as the upper end of town were struck by lightning, and completely demolished, and one of the instrements in the telegraph office was considerably damaged. The river at this point has risen rapidly dering the past week, and is still rising. We learn that Chen river is now in good navigable order, which will let out a large amount of produce which has been shut op by the low water. There is still a large amount of freight in Red River and its tributaries, and our sistenairs continue to receive full cargoes up and down.
