

WIDOW'S TROUBLES ARE OVER

How a Long Island Woman Secured 'Help' to Work Her Farm—Team Work Now.

STUMBLER ON RICH VEIN

Now Poor Mining Prospector Has Become Wealthy, With More in Sight.

RATTLERS KEEP THEM BUSY

Express Office Employees Have Box of Rattles on Their Hands.

IS RUDE TO GABRIEL

Purser Ejects Him From Appropriated Stateroom.

Polished Nails and Manners of Steward... Officer—Goes into the Lazzaret.

New York.—You have to hand it to Gabriel Fanches for the polish on his finger nails, his manners and his nerve.

WATCHED BURGLAR ROB HOME

St. Louis Millionaire Shoots House-breaker After Carefully Noting How the Robber Worked.

St. Louis, Mo.—Thomas B. Gerhart, millionaire president of a local real estate company, lying awake at 1 o'clock the other morning, heard the clicking of the latch on a dining room window at his home, 4609 Westminster place, a court set apart by Rich St. Louisans.

For half an hour Gerhart watched the man, who he saw was a negro, collecting clothing, jewelry and other valuables. Then the prowler started up the rear stairs.

HONOR GEN. WOLFE

Plan National Park on Plains of Abraham.

Great Battle Second Only to Waterloo—Momentous Episode at Quebec Said to Have Begun History of United States.

Quebec, Canada.—With the triumph of Wolfe on the Heights of Abraham," wrote J. R. Green, "began the history of the United States."

MARRIED AT THE AGE OF 150

Further Substantiation of Aztec Indian's Remarkable Record—He Died at 185.

Austin, Tex.—Further substantiation of the report from Tuxpan, Mexico, of the death some time ago of Jose Calvario at an age lacking only 15 years of the two century mark, was contained in a letter received here from Frank L. Watson, an American mining man at Coloma, Mexico.

"I was at Tuxpan on the day Calvario died," he writes. "I had seen the old man walking about the streets of the town many times and he was often pointed out to me as being nearly 200 years old."

WEDDED BY BEECHER

War-time Romance Recalled by 50th Anniversary.

Happy Marriage of Divinity Student Makes Deep Impression on Famous Preacher—Makes It Subject of Article.

Danbury, Conn.—A war-time marriage, performed by Henry Ward Beecher, then pastor of Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, while making a visit to Washington, Conn., was recalled by the celebration of the 50th anniversary of the wedding of the Rev. and Mrs. Horace Q. Judd, at their home in Bethel.

PATIENTS STOLEN BY DOCTOR

Seize Stranger Presented to Cure Ill of Feathered Pets—Money Also Taken.

St. Louis, Mo.—A sympathetic canary doctor with a lame foot and suave manner is the present possessor of several canary birds and several dollars that formerly belonged to various St. Louis women.

EAGLE FIGHTS MOTHER DEER

Denzons of California Mountain Engage in Battle—The Bird Comes Out Winner.

San Bernardino, Calif.—Campers in Lytle creek, climbing to Bonita Falls, the other day, witnessed a remarkable fight between a deer and an eagle.

HERO LETS TRAIN HIT HIM

Finds Broken Frog in South Dakota; Stands in Track 7th Engine Stops.

Fargo, N. D.—Edward Martinek of Lakota, N. D., saved a fast Great Northern freight train from being wrecked near that place by standing in the track and waving his hat until the train bore down on him.

BRAVE DOG GIVEN FUNERAL

Tige Got Ten Cents for Every Rat He Killed and Had Bank Account of His Own.

Columbus, O.—Lying in a little white silver handled casket in a local hotel and properly embalmed was the body of Tige, the dog who saved several lives in a hot fire three years ago.

CROOK ENDS PRISON TERM

Jean Gallay, Whose Exploit in 1908 Captivated All Countries, Is Set Free in France.

Paris.—The release from jail of Jean Gallay, the romantic swindler of the Comptoir d'Escompte, has reawakened interest in what was at the time a world-wide sensation.