State of Louisiana

TWELFTH LEGISLATURE—I. SESSION.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Turaday, Jan. 27, 1885. The House met, agreeably to adjournment. On motion of Mr, Penn, ordered, that the House do now proceed to the election of a door keeper, vice Even, decensed The ballot box having been carried around, and every incinber present having deposited his vote, On motion, ordered, that two tellers be appoint-

Messrs. Penn and Roussell were appointed by the speaker.

On opening the ballot box, it appeared, that out of 88 votes, Mr. G. B. Fauchet had obtained the unanimous vote of the House, and duly elected door keeper of the House of Representatives of the state of Louisiana; and took the eath of office in that capacity.

Mr. Ogden presented a memorial signed by a groat number of citizens of the purish of East Baton Rauge, praying for a compensation for Mr. Kean, for the considerations therein specified. On motion, ordered, that the same be referred to the committee on claims.

A message was received from the Senate, by Mr. Davis, their secretary, informing the House

 M_1 . Penn offered a resolution appointing a joint committee of both Houses to wait on the Governor elect of this state, and inform him that the hall of representatives, on Monday, the 2d of February, proximo, for the purpose of proceeding to 12 nave. his installation, and administering him the outh of office: which resolution was read for the first time, thuintained. and on motion, the House having dispensed with their rules, said resolution was taken up.

On motion, ordered, that the same be adopted. and Montegut members of said committee on behalf of the House.

The clerk was directed to inform the Senate solution .

Mr. Antonio Dueros offered the following resolation:

Resolved, That the clerk of the House be authorised to employ an additional enrolling clerk.

On motion, ordered, that the same be adopted. Mr. Lewis, on behalf of the judiciary committee, to, whom was referred the petition of Josias Gray, begs leave to be discharged of any further consideration of his prayer.

The same member, on behalf of the same comquittee, to whom was referred the bills entitled ' an act to provide for the appointment of justices of the peace and constables, and to explain their powers , and duties,' and for other purposes, and ' on act relative to the administration of vacant estates. moved that said bills, be printed, and recommitted to be acted upon.

 $M_{\rm f}$. Winn, on behalf of the committee on propositions and grievances, to whom was referred the memorial of Josiah Lawson and Joel K. Mead, made the following report:

The committee on propositions and grievauses to whom has been referred the petition of Jossah Lawson and Joel K. Mead, have the honor to re-

That the declarations contained in said petition, and the matters of fact therein stated, together with the annexed documentary evidence, have been maturely examined. The committee are of the opinion that the various acts heretofore passed by the legislature, an thorising lutteries, were in themselves highly impolitic, and destructive of good morals in an eminent degree, and the act of April, 1833, which put an end, they hope forever, to lotteries in this state, mot with their warmest approbation. The act above referred to, declares, that after a specified period, to wit: 1st January, 1834, no lettery tickets shall be sold, nor any lottery drawn, under heavy penalties. The petitioners say, this act operates unon them as an ex port facto law. and declare the same to be unconstitutional. They seem to desire the legislature, at least, in effect, so to declare it. This your committee cannot be so bold as to recommend. We are acting in a legislative, not a judicial capacity, and we do not think that any legislature should declare an act of a previous session unconstitutional, unless some flagrant injustice has been done, or some fundamental principle trampled upon, and this should be unequivecally palpable.

The case under consideration is not of such a character in the opinion of your committee, and though the act referred to may possibly have fallen heavily upon the petitioners, we cannot recommend them for legislative relief.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

R. WINN,
