New York, July 3

Cotton—There has been an active demand throughout the week at full prices, with a tendency to a further improvement, although the transactions probably have not exceed 2000 bales in consequence of the limited stock for sale, and a great part of the amount has been sold for resale. The sales include 1250 Upland at 9 ¼ @ 9 ½; 1 do at 9 50; 1 do at 9 ¾; 300 Mobile at 9 ¼; and 1850 New Orleans, 9 a 13¼ cts. The receipts are about 3000 bales.

Sugar—The transactions have been of quite a limited character. Sales confined entirely to parcels for grocery and prices present no variation. Whenever Brazil sugars are becoming scarce. The sales this week are 640 hhds Muscovado, Porto Rico, at 7 to 7 ¼; 250 do Cuba, 6¾ a 9, 250 boxes brown Havana, at 7 50; 100 hhds New Orleans, 7, 250 bbls and 150 do White Havana, 10 a 10½, and a small lot white Cuba, at 12 a 13, at 4 mos.

Tobacco—The stock of tobacco is so limited, and prices so high in this market, as not to admit of free sales, even for immediate consumption. The sales reach to 100 now crop St Domingo at 9½ cts; 50 Cuba, 14, and 50 Virginia, cash, part 90 do 12½, part at 4 mos. By auction, 25 hhds Nortn Carolina, sound and unmerchantable, 7 ¼ @ 7½, ever $6 12 per 100 lbs, 4, 6 and 8 mos.

Baltimore, July 3.

Flour—Since our last report the receipts of Flour have been light and transactions comparatively restricted, but we do not believe there has been sale at as low a rate as $7 56 and 7 62½ and the asking price is now $7 75 has been paid. Sales of 500 bbls have been made at 7 75 a 7 87½, and some of the retailers took 1000 bbls at 7 87½ a 8 00. Wheat—White is at 31 cents and bbls at 32. The wagon price of bbls is 29 cents exclusive of bbls.

Sugar—At auction to day 35 hhds Cuba Muscovado sold at 6 56 a 7 15.

Molasses—The cargo of schr Baltimore, from Matanzas, consisting of 150 hhds, was offered at auction to-day, but only 100 hhds, sold at 28 cts. At the same time 35 hhds Matanzas were sold at 30½ a 30¾ cts and 50 do Muscovado at 26 5 27 cts. The cargo of brig Levant not having been landed in time, will be sold on Thursday.

Charleston, July 3.

Cotton—The business done in Upland since the date of our last review, has been necessarily light in consequence of the very small stock on sale. For sales we have to report a few bales, supposed to be a fair parcel, according to quality.

Rice—The few casks now in the article for several days, are now confirmed to a few sma l lots, at last week's prices.

Cincinnati, July 3.

Business for the season has been fair during the week. A shipment of produce and groceries have been made to-day.

Flour, last week at a stead. Sales from wagons, 86 (1 ... small.

Whiskey, the same prices named last week, viz: 23 ... 24 cts.

Bacon, pork and lard continue to sell at moderate ... which ... the stocks are very much diminished.

Coffee—Common to fair request at full prices—sales ... bbls, 134 a 14 cents; Havana, 134 a 134 cts.

Sugar—New Orleans is in good demand at 8¾ to 9¾ cts.

Molasses—Plantation 45 cents; Sugar House 55 a ...

LATEST FROM TEXAS.

The steam packet Columbia, 42 hours from Galveston, arrived last night at ... We are indebted to the politeness of a passenger ... the House on "Civilian" of the 5th inst. ... interest:

A rumor was current in Houston that the merchants of Matamoros, Vera Cruz and Tampico had petitioned the Mexican government to order a ... transaction by which goods could be received from the United States via Texas.

A party of about 100 Comanche Indians, visited the the camp of eight or ten surveyors, headed by Mr Campbell deputy surveyor of Bexar, on the 23d inst. and under pretence of friendship, succeeded in stealing the horses of the surveyors. Mr Campbell and his party pursued, and on overtaking, were fired upon by the Indians, and Mr Campbell immediately killed: Captain Cage was also wounded, but made his escape.

Dr. Francis Moore and T W Ward are candidates for Congress, from Harrisburg county.

The contest for the Presidency and Vice-Presidency, waxes warmer as the crisis approaches; and seems to excite almost as much acrimony and ... as such struggles are wont to produce in the country.

Holland's Benefit.

This prince of low comedians makes an appeal to the public to-morrow evening. Will they pass by with cold neglect, him who has jogged so hard to please them, who first established a summer theatre in New Orleans, in the hope of amusing he citizens and obtaining a moiety of their patronage and who despite his untiring efforts, finds himself a loser by his enterprise and compelled to ... to his managers Tempest and Vanhall are to be exhibited this evening for the last time. The proceeds are for that lamentable son of Momus, who so quaintly carved phis alone sufficed to set the Theatre in a roar. Finish to the last, severe fourth and minutery, give Holland a proof that evening that you have not entirely ... him!

The Bank Presidents.

SIR—If the best ... of sources, that any observations ... the 27th ult. have ... were deemed of infinitely more consequence than the salary of human life, and for aught that we know to the contrary, Mr Grundy's Bill has been permitted to slumber unnoticed, none other has been presented as a substitute, and at ... navigation still remains disgraced by reckless, inefficiency and consequent destruction, unfettered by any single legal restriction. This is one among the many consequences of the exclusive party spirit that is abroad, compelling undivided attention, pinching on all subjects of minor importance, and raising the minds of men of to a pitch of unnatural and factitious excitement that induces them to disregard every consideration save that of political triumph.

Well, Congress has adjourned, and nothing has been done. Several bills have been rejected, some alone of any importance (the Pre-emption Bill) passed, and we must be content to await the action of another legislature for the completion of those useful and necessary projects when the interests of the nation and the claims of society imperiously demand.

From the Frontier.

A report was in circulation in New York that Navy Island had been re-occupied by a large body of patriots. It was, however, without much foundation. A small party of them, says the Buffalo Commercial Advertiser, who wanted to enjoy a practical joke at the expense of the Royalists, went on the island at the time stated, and fired a few musket shots across to the main land. The alarm was instantly given and expresses started off with the information that the Island had been re-occupied by a large force.

Intelligence from Canada on Buffalo, represented that the patriot force near Short Hills was entirely unconstituted, and their standards and leaders captured. A large body of troops and 600 Indians had been promptly collected in the front, and generally hemmed among the prisoners, who will be treated as ... ...
