MAYORALTY OF NEW ORLEANS.
Council of the First Municipality.

Sitting of Friday, Nov. 11th, 1836.

An ordinance for the better organization of the Police in the Municipality No 1, of the city of New Orleans.

The council ordain as follows:

Art. 1st. Every individual being proprietor and resident within the limits of the municipality No 1, who shall have a complaint to make against the behaviour of any officer, commissary of police, overseer, guard, or any other person employed now in the service and under wages of the 1st municipality, or who may hereafter accept an employment of said Municipality, for any refusal or negligence to execute the duties imposed upon him by the present Ordinances, or by those which may hereafter be passed, shall apply to the Recorder of the 1st municipality and expose the motives of his grievance, as also the refusal or neglect of said officer, commissary of police, overseer, guard, or of any other person employed in the service of the 1st Municipality, to comply strictly with his duties.

Art. 2nd. The Recorder is hereby required to take immediate cognizance of the nature of the complaint brought before him, as aforesaid, and cause to appear before his tribunal any officer, commissary of police, overseer, guard or in any other person in the employ of the 1st municipality, against whom any complaint shall be made for any refusal or neglect to comply with the duties imposed upon him. In case the complaint be founded, the Recorder is hereby authorised to condemn said officer, commissary of police, &c. to a fine not less than five dollars and not exceeding one hundred dollars

Art. 3rd. The Recorder is hereby authorised to forward immediately to the treasurer of this municipality one copy of the judgment, specifying the amount in which the officer &c. has been fined, and the treasurer shall be bound to deduct from the salary of the person so condemned, the amount of said fine.

Art. 4th. The Recorder is hereby requested to make known to the council the names of the officers by him condemned.

OCEAN STEAM NAVIGATION COMPANY.—The undersigned Commissioners appointed at a meeting of the merchants and citizens of New Orleans, held at the Merchants Exchange on the evening of the 1st inst. and agreeably to a resolution adopted at said meeting hereby give

PUBLIC NOTICE

That the subscription book for five thousand shares of one hundred dollars each, will be opened this day, and kept open daily, from 10 o'clock A M to 2 o'clock P M, at the office of the Ocean Insurance Company in Exchange place, next door to the Post Office, until Thursday 15th inst, when, in case of any excess of subscription over five thousand shares, the subscription will be apportioned by reducing those of the largest amounts.

It is the general desire that this stock should be distributed in small amounts, among all classes of the inhabitants of this city and State;—That all may feel a personal interest in the great object of this company, in establishing regular intercourse by steam power with Cuba, Mexico and Mobile, and ultimately with Europe: and an immediate selection of 1st class sailing vessels as packets to Havre and to Liverpool:—One dollar per share will only be required on subscription, and no further payment asked, until the act of incorporation be obtained and sufficient protection from the State and our Municipal Councils, by their subscriptions. The result of which, will be laid before a meeting of the Stockholders to be called for the purpose, and if found satisfactory to them, an election of Directors, by the Stockholders, to be forthwith held, that the Company may immediately go into full and active operation.

As by the Revenue Laws of the United States none but citizens can be interested in vessels under the American flag, it is requested that none but citizens of the United States, will subscribe to this Company.

STATE OF LOUISIANA—Parish Court for the Parish and City of New Orleans.—The State of Louisiana.—To all whom these presents shall come Greeting. Whereas, S Boissman, John Culbertson, and Pierre Dupeux, having purchased at a sale made by the Sheriff of the parish of Orleans, the property hereinafter described, has applied to the Clerk of this Court to whose office the deed of sale was recorded on the fourth day of November, 1836, for a monition or advertisement in conformity to an act of the Legislature of the State of Louisiana, entitled "an act for the further assurance of titles to purchasers at judicial sales," approved the tenth day of March, 1834.

Now, therefore, know ye, and all persons interested herein, are hereby cited and admonished in the name of the state of Louisiana, and of the Parish Court, who can set up any right, title or claim in and to the property hereinafter described, in consequence of any informality in the order, decree or judgment of the court under which the sale was made, or any irregularity or illegality in the appraisements and advertisements, in time, or manner of sale, or for any other defect what soever; to shew cause, within 30 days from the day this monition is first inserted in the public papers, why the sale so made should not be confirmed and homologated.

The said property was sold by the Sheriff of the Parish aforesaid, on the second day of November, A D 1836, by virtue of a decree of this Court, rendered on the twenty third day of September, A D 1836, in a suit entitled O'Dubigg & Chauvigner vs H C B Risingsun, N. 9041 of the Docket of this Court, at which sale S Boissman, John Culbertson and Pierre Dupeux became the purchasers for the price of $8000—eight thousand dollars.

Description of the property, as given in the Judicial Conveyance, viz

A certain two story brick house, and a lot of ground, at the corner of Champs Elysées and Good Children streets, measuring twenty eight feet on Champs Elysées, by one hundred and twelve feet on Good Children street.
