Alphabet Fleury vs. his creditors.
STATE OF LOUISIANA—Parish Court for the parish and city of New Orleans—Present the hon Charles Maurian, Judge. No 10614. The cession of property by the petitioner is accepted by the court for the benefit of his creditors. It is ordered that said creditors do meet at the office of Louis T. Caire, notary public, on Tuesday the 13th of February, 1838, then and there to deliberate upon the affairs of the insolvent. In the mean time all proceedings against his person and property are stayed. Extract from the Minutes—Clerk's Office, January 31st, 1838. ARMAND PITOT, Clerk. feb 1

...protests for more than ten days. And it shall be the duty of the board of currency to condense into one tabular statement the several statements thus received and to record the same in a book kept for that special purpose, and after having the same printed, to furnish a copy to each Bank, and the President and Cashiers of each Bank shall be permitted to examine the registers of each Bank at the office of the Board of Currency.

On the question for the adoption of said amendment.

The yeas and nays were called for, when it appeared that Messrs Avery, Barrow, Boyle, Briant, Bossier, Coulon, Convillon, David, Grymes, Godberry, Kemp, Lambremont, Lewis, McDonald, Moore, Rogers, Sidell, Sparks and Truxillo had voted in the affirmative—20 yeas. And Messrs Bourg, Breed, Bickham, Canon, Chenet, Eason, Forstall, Kennedy, Kenner, Lawson, Morgan of St. Landry, Morgan of Ouachita, Pattin, Poydras, Phelps, Ratliff, Soniat, Sloan, Sarpy, H C Thibodeaux, Thomas and Wadsworth had voted in the negative—24 nays.

Said amendment was consequently rejected.

On the question for the adoption of the 5th section which reads as follows:

Sec. 5th. Be it &c. That it shall be the duty of the board of currency immediately after its organization, and on the last Saturday of December in each year to ascertain as accurately as possible the true condition of every banking institution in this state, and to require of each the following statements certified by its President and Cashier, and made up to the close of the same day.

1st. A full and detailed statement of the affairs of the bank.

2d. A detailed statement of its cash responsibilities and of its specie on hand; which statement shall be only recorded in a book to be kept for the purpose; and on the last day of each month, it shall be the duty of the board of currency to require the following statement from every bank certified as above, viz: A statement of its deposits, designating the kind of money, of its circulation, designating the kind of paper, and of its cash designating the kind of money.

And from and after the 1st of March 1840, it shall be the duty of the board of currency to average quarterly the amount of specie in each bank during the previous quarter, say, on the 1st Monday of April, July, October and January in each year, and to publish the same; and the statements and quarterly average above required, shall also be recorded, that it shall be the duty of the board of currency on the 1st Monday of each month, to publish at least in two of the papers of the city of New Orleans, of which the State Paper shall be one, a condensed statement of the circulation of each bank of its deposits and of its specie, that it shall also be the duty of the board of currency, on the second Monday of Jan. in each year, to transmit, under a sealed cover, to the address of each house of the legislature, a report of its operations during the preceding year, and a condensed statement of the condition of the banks, made up to the close of the same day required by this section; and the governor of the state, or a committee of either branch of the legislature appointed for that purpose, shall have the power to examine as often as they may deem it expedient, the records of the said board of currency, and to demand copies of any documents they may require.

The yeas and nays were called for, when it appeared that Messrs Breed, Bickham, Boyle, Brashear, Briant, Bossier, Brenezale, Canon, Chenet, Cade, Convillon, David, Eason, Forstall, Godberry, Kenner, Kemp, Lambremont, Lawson, Lewis, Patin, Poydras, Ratliff, Slidell, Sinnot Sloan, Sarpy, A B Thibodeaux, Thomas, Wadsworth and Wilson had voted in the affirmative—31 yeas. And Messrs Avery, Bourg, Barrow, Coulon, Ducros, Grymes, Kennedy, McDonald, Moore, Morgan of St. Landry, Morgan of Ouachita, Phelps, Sparks, Truxillo and H C Thibodeaux had voted in the negative—15 nays.

Said section was consequently adopted.

During the discussion of the amendment to the 6th section, a motion was made to adjourn until Monday at 10 o'clock, A M, whereupon the yeas and nays were called for, when it appeared that Messrs Avery, Bourg, Canon, Chenet, Coulon, Ducros, Freret, Godberry, Lambremont, Phelps, Ratliff and Wadsworth had voted in the affirmative—12 yeas.

And Messrs Barrow, Breed, Bickman, Boyle, Brashear, Briant, Bossier, Brenezale, Cade, Convillon, David, Eason, Forstall, Grymes, Kennedy, Kenner, Kemp, Lawson, Lewis, McDonald, Moore, Morgan of St. Landry, Morgan of Ouachita, Patin, Slidell, Sparks, Soniat, Sloan, Sarpy, Truxillo, H C Thibodeaux, A B Thibodeaux, Thomas and Wilson had voted in the negative—34 nays.

Said motion was consequently rejected.

On motion the House adjourned until to-morrow at 10 o'clock, A M.

A BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HAIR is the grandest ornament belonging to the human frame. How strongly the loss of it changes the countenance and prematurely brings on the appearance of old age, which causes many to recoil at being uncovered, and sometimes even to shun society to avoid the jests and sneers of their acquaintances; the remainder of their lives are consequently spent in retirement. In short, not even the loss of property fills the generous thinking youth with that heavy sinking gloom as does the loss of his hair. To avert all these unpleasant circumstances, OLDRIDGE'S BALM OF COLUMBIA stops the hair from falling off on the first application and a few bottles restores it again. It likewise produces eyebrows and whiskers; prevents the hair from turning grey, makes it curl beautifully, and frees it from scurf. Numerous certificates of the first respectability in support of the virtues of Oldridge's Balm, are shown by the proprietors.

Read the following:

ROBERT WHARTON, Esq. late Mayor of Philadelphia, has certified, as may be seen below, to the high character of the following gentlemen.

The undersigned do hereby certify that we have used the Balm of Columbia discovered by J. Oldridge, and have found it highly serviceable not only as a preventive against the falling off of hair, but also a certain restorative.

The aged, and those who persist in wearing wigs, may not always experience its restorative qualities, yet it will certainly raise its virtues in the estimation of the public, when it is known that three of the above signers are more than 50 years of age, and the others not less than 30.

From the Mayor.
Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, City of Philadelphia.
I, ROBERT WHARTON, Mayor of said city of Philadelphia, do hereby certify that I am well acquainted with Messrs. J. P. Inglis, John D. Thomas, M. D. John S. Furey, & Hugh McCurdy, whose names are signed to the above certificate, that they are gentlemen of character and respectability, and as such full credit should be given to the said certificate.
In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the city to be affixed,
[L. S.] this sixth day of December, &c.

...Company.

As this Institution is to be supported by persons actuated only by paternal love and true philanthropy, it is a sure warranty of its stability, and of the efficient means which shall be employed for the instruction of the pupils.

The health, the morality and education of the students of the college of Baton Rouge will always be subjects of paternal and constant care; corporal punishment shall never be resorted to, and if in some instances recourse is to be had, to a correction on account of excessive laziness or misbehaviour, where neither advice or reproof will prevail, it will never be of a degrading nature, nor ever exercised ... will enable them to acquire those social accomplishments perhaps too much disregarded in institutions of this kind, and which constitute domestic happiness and success in the world.

As regards the instruction of the pupils, the best means shall be resorted to for its acquirement, a competent number of well qualified teachers, a course of studies embracing at once all that experience has thought to be good in old systems, added to all the late improvements on education, will lead the pupils to a short and easy way to the acquirement of that portion of human knowledge, which shall enable them to occupy a distinguished place in society, or in the civil and political employments which they may be called on to fulfil.

The course of studies will comprehend all the several branches of instruction required in Universities in order to receive the degree of Bachelor of Arts.

Experience teaches us, that but few students remain long enough at College to complete their studies; therefore a graduate, though a Bachelor of Arts and Sciences composing one course of studies, and which are the more useful, will be taught first, in order to enable a pupil who leaves the school, to use with some advantage, at least, the knowledge which he may have acquired during his stay at the College.

COURSE OF STUDIES.
Reading and Writing—French and English Languages.
These two languages shall be taught with the same care. The Grammar and practical exercises of both will occupy a great part of the time of the students: all lectures on sciences will always be delivered in both languages, in order to afford the pupils the opportunity of speaking them both with fluency and correctness.

Arithmetic, Algebra and Geography.
Arithmetic (next to the two maternal languages) is considered as indispensable in our country, and shall form a more regular than any other science, it will therefore be taught with the greatest care, all its applications and those of Algebra to the operations of commerce and finance, will be the subject of numerous exercises. Geometry considered in practical logic, and as the course of the principles upon which are based the art of surveying, and the measurement of Solids, shall be duly attended to, and will furnish the matter for numerous exercises, both in the field and in the school room.

Logic and Rhetoric, in both languages.
Geography, History and Mythology.
Book-Keeping, by double entry,
Drawing,
Latin, Spanish and Greek Languages.
Elements of Astronomy, Mechanics, Natural History, Chemistry, Optics, &c. &c.

THE BEE.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY J. BAYON, Printer of the State, General Council, and of the First and Third Municipalities.

NEW ORLEANS:
TUESDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 13, 1838.

FOR GOVERNOR,
A. B. ROMAN.

Representative, 1st District, to Congress,
JOHN SLIDELL.

Extract from the Journal of the Senate of the 5th Feb 1838.

Resolved, That the Senate of the state of Louisiana do approve of the general course of the administration of the late executive, A. B. Roman; and that he carries with him in his retirement from office the grateful remembrance of the members of this house.

Resolved, That the President of the Senate be requested to send a copy of this resolution to Mr. Roman.

Extract from the Journal of the House, of the 3d Feb. 1838.

Resolved by the House of Representatives of the state of Louisiana, that the administration of the government of the state, by the late governor, A. B. Roman, has been marked by wisdom, firmness, and a judicious and unwearied zeal for the public service; that in the execution of the laws, he has exhibited fidelity, and in the numerous and important appointments it has fallen to his lot to make, he has manifested impartiality, and a single regard to the true interests of the state; and that he retires with the full and entire approbation of this House for his official conduct, and with their personal esteem and regard.

Resolved, That the Speaker of this House transmit to the late Governor Roman a copy of these resolutions.

Appointment by the Governor,
With the advice and consent of the Senate:
Mr. P. E. TRICOU—Director of the Bank of Louisiana.

Mutual Mortgage Fund.

What a pity it is that all the luminous, sublime and beneficial projects that spring spontaneously from the human brain are not carried into practical operation! Doubtless, if the manifold stupendous schemes that the inventive genius of man concocts solely with the disinterested and generous intention of benefiting his fellow-creatures could be entirely realized, the world would soon display a maturity of wisdom, a perfection of knowledge and an abundance of resources that would put to shame our present scanty pretensions. Unhappily, however, the contumacious world will persist in refusing to acknowledge the excellence of these comprehensive designs, and pertinaciously classes them among the baseless theories of those moon struck mathematicians who ever and anon boast of discovering the quadrature of the circle, and the principle of perpetual motion.

Grieved and humiliated do we feel at being obliged to state that another gigantic plan of public utility has recently shared a similar fate, and that in announcing for the first time on the English side of the Bee, the existence of the Mutual Mortgage Fund, sundour compels us to acknowledge in the same paragraph, that its birth and death were almost simultaneous.

This Mutual Mortgage Fund was to have accomplished wonderful things—it was to have enriched all the enterprising poor in the country—it was to have driven bank notes and promises to pay from the market, and to have showered upon Louisiana a perfect flood of five and twenty franc pieces—it was to have enjoyed all the advantages of banking institutions without the pains and labor of soliciting a charter from our legislature—it was in short to have been a perpetual mine, where gold and silver ready coined would have been obtained in handfuls by all who chose to dip therein. Such were the prodigious, the unheard of advantages which were presented to the public by two adventurous individuals, one of whom, the fertility of whose intellect amply compensated for his arid title, was to have been the immortal founder of this marvellous institution. Never was the ingratitude of mankind so conspicuously displayed as on the present occasion. Blind, insensible Orleanois, how could you refuse to foster a speculation which would have made an El Dorado of your already thriving city. But lamentation is now bootless, and we will therefore proceed briefly to recount the sad catastrophe that has terminated the incipient career of the Mutual Mortgage Fund.

The projectors of this panacea for poverty, after having for many weeks circulated their hand bills, industriously seeking to persuade the people of the efficacy and excellence of their scheme, and having collected together a few staunch adherents, at length assembled their forces, and proceeded to the election of a president. Our worthy and respected Judge Watts having been selected, took the liberty of demanding of the two associates their means of carrying into execution their golden promises. Mr A Ride replied, that two effectual plans existed—he would develope the first and leave the other to the explanation of his able confrere. His object was simply the issue of a large amount of paper, with which our cotton and sugar would be purchased, despatched to Europe, converted into gold and silver, and thus form the solid capital of the company. The president demurred somewhat at this comprehensive scheme—found it all sufficient in theory but questioned its success—had some little doubt about the acceptance and currency of the paper to be issued, and finally proposed that the partner of Mr Ride should describe his plan. This was stated to be one of those vast financial mysteries which, however certain of perfect success, could not be revealed until it had been practised. Our president, not exactly comprehending this proceeding, and having by this time in his mind the very significant and wholly English term HUMBUG, quietly arose and having prefaced the action by a few appropriate observations expressive of belief in the profound abilities of the associates, but stating that one of the plans was impracticable and the other incomprehensible, offered his resignation, abandoned the council chamber, followed by the entire board of direction, leaving the associate financiers in a glorious minority of two.

We will not fill our columns with jeremiads over the premature fate of the Mortgage Fund, because we have a distant hope that the grand energies of its founders will yet enable them to triumph over calamity, and establish their project in all the splendor of monetary munificence. As soon as we perceive the remotest probability of such a felicitous consummation, we promise our readers to give them early intelligence of the same—we will then present them with a complete analysis of the affair, as far as its occult sublimities can be penetrated by any other understanding than those of its gifted projectors.

The Georgian under the title of Cheering Prospect, extracts a paragraph from the Tallahassee Floridian, ...

... On motion of Mr. ... petition was referred to the judiciary committee.

BANK BILL.

The clerk of the house of representatives transmitted the bill to the senate, and informed him that several amendments had been made to it.

Mr. Pone proposed likewise that a special committee of five members should be appointed for the purpose of examining the amendments. By adopting this mode of procedure, it was possible that the opinion of both houses might be conciliated.

These two propositions were adopted.

Messrs. Winn, Hoa, Ducros, Garcia, and Scott were appointed to compose said committee.

The senate proceeded to the second reading of the following bills and resolutions; to wit:

1st. Act to incorporate a Roman Catholic Church, in the parish of St. Martin (Attakapas.)

This was adopted, underwent a third reading and passed.

2d. "Resolution appointing a committee of five members of the house and——members of the senate to make preparations for the celebration of the anniversary of GEORGE WASHINGTON.

On motion of Mr. Bossier the blank was filled with the word "three."

This resolution underwent its third reading and passed.

Messrs. Bossier, Ducros and Labauve were appointed to compose the committee on the part of the senate.

3d. Resolution granting leave of absence for two months to Thomas N. Morgan, associate judge of the city court.

Mr. Bossier introduced an additional section to grant to Frederick Williams, notary at Natchitoches, a leave of absence for 6 months and to authorise Samuel M. Hyams to replace him.

Mr. Winn objected—he did not think this section should be adopted as it stood, because, constitutionally speaking, the right of appointing a notary belongs to the governor conjointly with the senate, and in the present case the assembly general would assume the power. He wished to see this section modified so as to render it conformable to the spirit of the constitution.

After some debates, the senate adopted that portion of the section which relates simply to the leave of absence to be granted to Mr Williams, and suppressed that relating to the substitute of a public functionary.

The senate having thus acted with its rules, these two resolutions underwent their third reading and passed.

4th. Act to come to the relief of Mr. A. Powell, and for other purposes, and

5th. Act to come to the relief of Paul Power—these two underwent a third reading by their titles and passed. The senate sat with closed doors to transact executive business; after which,

The senate adjourned till to-morrow morning.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.
Monday Feb 12, 1838.

Mr. Wadsworth said he was a member of the minority of the committee to whom was referred the petition of John Gibson and F. Wilkinson, relative to a new Directory, and wished to report a bill favourable to the prayer of said petition.

The speaker said no bill can be reported from the minority of a committee—but the gentleman might do it as an individual member of the house.

Mr. Wadsworth accordingly introduced a bill appropriating a certain sum to purchase a certain number of copies of said work.

Mr. Wadsworth said he rose to make a motion; he then stated that he had been charged with an infamous action—with having taken a bribe—a pitiful bribe of 500 dollars; he wanted a fair and full investigation.—The charge was made, he said, by a vile wretch, whoever he may be. His object in moving for an investigation was to bring him out—to drag him from his skulking place. Mr. W. said he had some reason for believing that he was an individual of high standing, a member of his own party, who sometimes acted as chairman of meetings. That individual can repel the charge and he wished him to be summoned before the committee. It was the United States marshal, Mr. John H. Holland; the petition had been carried about by Mr. Holland. Mr. W. said he believed that that man was the moving cause. He (Mr W.) had introduced a law here which had deprived him of an income of at least $10,000. The law was that regulating the pilots at the mouth of the river. Under the old law a branch pilot could appoint whatever deputies he pleased, and Mr. Holland, by getting the control of one of those branches, had monopolized the profits of pilotage accruing at the Balize, and had been in the habit of sending down there all the vagabonds he could find to act as pilots. The effect of the present law had been to secure to the state the services of able and responsible men, and my compensation (said Mr. W.) has been their confidence and esteem.

Mr. Sparks interrupted the member, observing that he had moved for a committee, and any remarks he had to offer would be more in their place there than here.

The house assented to the appointment of a committee.

Mr. Forstall gave notice of a bill relative to the inspection of tobacco.

The bank bill, being the order of the day, was finally passed with one title, and the clerk was directed to carry it to the senate.

The vote on the final passage of the bill was 31 yeas, 8 nays.

On motion of Mr. Sparks the house took up the resolution offered some time since by Mr. Slidell requesting our representatives and instructing our senators in Congress to vote against the incorporation of a National Bank.

Mr. Lawson moved to postpone the resolution, and Mr. Slidell moved an amendment, both of which motions were lost, and the resolution with the preamble passed, 37 yeas, 21 nays.

Mr. Patin moved that the house take into consideration the bill to appropriate that portion of surplus funds of the United States, accruing to this state.—The bill appropriates $355,000 of this fund to pay off the floating debts of the state and to pay up the state subscription to the Barataria and Lafourche Canal Company, the balance to go into the sinking fund, to meet the payment of the state bonds as they fall due. The clause of the bill relative to the payment of the subscription to the Barataria Canal stock was opposed with some earnestness, but it was finally adopted, together with the bill, with the exception of the last section, which was rejected: the object of that section was to repeal all laws authorizing the governor to negotiate loans.

Mr. Bickam moved that the house dispense with its rules and take up the bill to incorporate the Franklin Academy in the parish of Washington—the motion was carried, and the bill was read section by section and passed, and the house adjourned till to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

BY THE EXPRESS MAIL.

SAVANNAH, Feb 7. 1838.
FROM FLORIDA.

By the arrival of the Steamer Camden, Captain MILLS, from St Augustine, we learn that a battle was fought on the 24th ult on the Loche Hatchee, (Locha Hatchee,) in which the Indians were defeated, tho' with the loss on the part of our troops, of nine killed and thirty wounded.

Gen. Jesup is among the wounded, having received a severe flesh wound, said to have been in the face.

Nothing is said of the loss of the enemy, though supposed to have been great. Many cattle, ponies, and hogs, with other property, were taken by our troops.

A friend has furnished the following list of killed and wounded in this action.

... was ... and ... lage of ... but it was only a ... another fit of coughing, which this time was ... with roars of laughter, and other ... of a ... of the House of Commons. The ... again ... away, and ... boys who, I verily believe ... being ... taken up his seat. At last the Clerk proceeded to call the names, and forthwith the House displayed the same ... calm as was exhibited the other evening.

During the progress of the roll-call, Mr. Murray of Ky. was supported into the hall with a bandaged face and ... in order to give his vote, and it was well ... The administration party were so vigilant, for the result of the vote on Howard's amendment stood, ayes 117, noes 115, when the Chair announced his casting vote in the affirmative, which of course carried the amendment. The announcement of it caused some clapping among the administration members. Mr. Howard rose and moved as a further amendment, that the Speaker should send a copy of the resolution just passed to the Governor of Mississippi. Wise instantly rose and in a manner more furious than I ever saw him before, denounced the result of the vote, as springing from party sources as a violation of the rights of a state. His voice several times went off in a shriek, from the choking excitement he labored under. He concluded his invective, with declaring that were he Ward or Prentiss, he would approach the Chair and demand the oath to be administered to him. If it was refused, he would have seated the Evangelists and taken the oath himself, and then have taken his seat in the House, which nothing but actual violence should turn him from. After he had taken his seat, Boon, of Ia. replied to him and next Prentiss himself got the floor. Duncan of Ohio, however, claimed it and was proceeding to speak when roars of order! caused him to become angry, and he did not take his seat, till ordered to do so by the Speaker. Prentiss then proceeded to address the House for the last time and in a manner unusually vehement. After thanking the House for their attention to him during the debate, he went on to say that he would not consider the decision made final. He alluded to the remarks made by several of his opponents, that they would have disdained to have persisted in an application such as he had pressed. On the contrary, he considered it the most noble enterprise he ever embarked in. He looked upon the vote of the House as an insult to his state, she would be degraded did she not resent it. He said he would not go back to the people for re-election on his return, for he did not think there would be another election soon; but next session he would appear again with his claim and demand a new trial.

After Prentiss had concluded, the question recurred on Bell's amendment which is in fact the same as that decided last week, namely it rescinds the decision of the House made last session, and invalidates Gholson and Claiborn's claims as members. This was carried by a vote 121 ayes, noes 113, the affirmative having gained two votes. The question next recurred on Howard's amendment as a resolution and this was again carried by a vote of 118 ayes, 116 noes.—You perceive a difference on both sides of this. The ayes gained one vote by the appearance of another invalid, Mr. Snyder, and the negative lost one, by Mr. Mercer happening to be in the lobby when his name was called—so he lost his vote. The next question was, the amendment to send the Governor of Mississippi copies of the foregoing resolution, which being adopted the House adjourned at six, p. m.

In the Senate Mr. Rives spoke two hours in behalf of his project, to a great audience, and has not finished yet. I regret my want of space to notice in detail his argument. He is opposed to every feature of Wright's bill, and thinks a majority of the country in favor of the State Bank system, which he says stands in the attitude of a second choice, both to the treasury party and the sub-treasury party and the national bank party. He also declares that if, as many say, the National Bank is the issue, that it is whether the country shall have a Government National Bank, or an Executive National Bank, which last is the true nature of the sub-treasury scheme bill.

Among other business done in the Senate to-day, Mr. Preston introduced a resolution, to authorise the Committee on the Library to have printed the Madison papers.

There is nothing else new here, the Election affair having swallowed up attention or interest in every other matter. Yours, M.

STATE OF LOUISIANA.
Thirteenth Legislature, Second Session.
JOURNAL OF THE SENATE.
Monday, Feb. 5 1838

The senate met agreeably to adjournment, members present, Mr. Joseph E. Johnson, President, Messrs. Armand, Bossier, Briscoe, Labauve, Winn, Porche, Hoa, Scott, Olivier, Dupre, Garcia.

Mr. Bossier presented the petition of the inhabitants of the parish of Claiborne, praying that certain persons therein named may be incorporated as a board of Trustees for the government of a Seminary of learning in the town of Minden.

Which petition was read and was referred to a special committee consisting of Messrs. Bossier and Briscoe.

Mr. Winn with leave, introduced without previous notice,

A bill relative to the clerkship of the parish of Avoyelles.

Which was read a first time:

A communication was received from the President of the Atchafalaya Rail Road and Banking company, enclosing a statement of the affairs of said bank.

Which, on motion, was laid on the table for the examination of the members of the senate.

The bill for the relief of such persons as may be deprived of slaves under accusations of an insurrectionary character,

Being the special order of the day, was taken up for consideration.

Mr. Winn proposed a substitute for the original bill.

Which was accepted by the senate.

Mr. Bossier moved to amend the first section of the bill, by fixing the compensation therein mentioned at the sum of $300.

Mr. Winn moved to fix the compensation at $600.

The question being on Mr Winn's amendment,—was lost.

The amendment offered by Mr. Bossier, not having been seconded.

The question was taken on the adoption of the first section, and was lost.

Mr. Winn moved for the rejection of the bill, which was carried.

And the bill was accordingly rejected.

The bill to incorporate the New Orleans Phil-Harmonic Society.

Was taken up and read a second time.

On motion of Mr. Hoa, the rules of the senate were dispensed with.

And the said bill was read a third time and concurred in.

The bill to create a separate battalion in the parish of Caddo,

Was taken up, read a second time and amended.

And on motion the rules of the senate having been dispensed with,

The said bill was read a third time and passed.

The bill supplementary to an act entitled an act to incorporate the Society of Mechanics in the city of New Orleans passed 17th February 1831,

Was taken up for its second reading.

The 1st, 2d, 3d, 4th and 5th sections were adopted.

Mr. Dupré moved to amend the sixth section by making the sum to be paid by the state $1000, instead of the sum of three thousand dollars.

Mr. Armand proposed the sum of $2000.

And the question having been taken on this last amendment, was lost.

The question being on the amendment proposed by Mr. Dupre, the yeas and nays were called for.

Messrs. Bossier, Briscoe, Dupre, Labauve, Olivier, Porche and Winn, voted in the affirmative, 7 yeas.

Messrs. Armand, Hoa and Scott voted in the negative, 3 nays.

The amendment offered by Mr. Dupré was therefore adopted.

Mr. Winn moved further to amend the section by requiring the institution to educate and maintain, three indigent scholars, one from each congressional ...

For the relief of the College of Franklin, parish of St. Landry, ... separate representation.

A message in writing was received from the Governor, by his private Secretary, Mr Forstall, which ... informed the Senate that the Governor had approved the enrolled resolution

Making a duty for the Civil Engineer to make a survey of Old River, and also of Bayou Quatsatte.

The bill relative to the cut-off between the parishes of Iberville and West Baton Rouge,

Being the special order of the day, was taken up for its second reading.

Mr Labauve moved to amend the 1st section, by appropriating $1000, to be paid by the State so soon as the sum of $1000 shall have been subscribed and paid by the parishes of Iberville and West Baton Rouge, or by individuals.

Mr Hoa proposed to make the appropriation one half per amount of subscription, that is to say, $1250—which was accepted by Mr Labauve.

And on motion the amendment proposed by Mr Hoa was adopted, and the section thus amended was adopted.

The following additional section was proposed by Mr. Bossier, to wit:

Sec. —. Be it enacted &c. That it shall be the duty of the Treasurer of the State to pay to John Ward, John Wyatt, Joseph Frank, —Rowe, Lake Radiché and Thomas Thompson upon their warrant or upon the warrant of a majority of them, the sum of six hundred dollars to complete the State Road leading from Natchitoches to Monroe, as soon as a majority of the above named persons shall satisfy the said Treasurer that the work is completed.

And on the question of adoption the yeas and nays were called for.

Messrs Armand, Bossier, Briscoe, Dethigny, Hoa, Labauve, Porche, Scott and Winn had voted in the affirmative, nine yeas.

Messrs Dupre. Tete and Olivier voted in the negative, three nays.

The section offered by Mr Bossier, was accordingly adopted.

And the bill passed through its second reading.

The bill for the relief of the Medical College of Louisiana being the special order of the day was taken up for its second reading.

And the first section being under consideration,

Mr Briscoe moved to reject the 1st section, and called for the yeas and nays.

Messrs Bossier, Briscoe, Labauve, Porche, Tete, and Winn had voted in the affirmative, six yeas.

Messrs Armand, Dethigny, Dupré, Ducros, Garcia, Hoa, Olivier and Scott, had voted in the negative eight nays.

So the motion to reject was lost.

Mr Winn moved to strike out that part of the first section which grants a portion of the public square now occupied by the legislature,

But the question was taken on this motion,

Mr Labauve moved to postpone the further consideration of the bill until to-morrow

Seven members voted for the postponement, and seven members against it.

The president of the senate gave his casting vote in favor of the postponement,

So the motion to postpone the further consideration of the bill was carried

On motion of Mr Winn, the said bill was made the order of the day for Thursday the 8th inst.

On motion of Mr Winn.

The bill for the relief of such citizens as may be deprived of slaves under accusations of an insurrectionary character, which had been rejected in the session of yesterday, was reconsidered and reinstated.

And on motion the said bill was laid on the table.

Mr Winn with leave introduced a resolution for the appointment by the president of a committee of five members, to collect information, and present a detailed report at the next session, as to the best practicable method of establishing a general system of free schools for the State of Louisiana.

Which was read a first time.

Mr Scott moved to make the bill to remove the seat of Government of the State of Louisiana from the city of New Orleans to the town of Baton Rouge, the special order of the day for the 8th inst.

Mr Hoa moved to make the said bill the special order of the day for Thursday the 15th inst.

Pending the motion, Mr Winn moved an adjournment, and the yeas and nays were called for,

Messrs Armand, Bossier, Briscoe, Dethigny, Olivier, Scott, Tete and Winn voted in the affirmative, eight yeas.

Messrs Dupré, Ducros, Garcia and Hoa voted the negative, four nays.

And the Senate was accordingly adjourned until to-morrow, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

ARCHITECTURAL STONE.

MR. EDITOR,—Under the above title I observed in an article in the "The American," of Feb. 1st, signed "A FRIEND TO IMPROVEMENT."

The writer of that article, who appears to have a thorough knowledge of the various kinds of stone used for masonry in cities, alludes to a stone of a most superior character at the Repository of Newton Richards, Esq.

I have examined that stone, and as the attention of architects and builders was directed to it by the "Friend to improvement," I can inform him that there is a Planet's Quarry from which it was taken in the Mississippi Insurance Office.

That on inquiry I find it was taken from a quarry in the state of Maine during the last severe winter; it is unlike any stone ever introduced into the market, and much superior to any building material I have ever seen. The stone is of a deep, sky blue colour, and there is undoubted proof that it has been used in the vicinity of the quarry for thirty years without the slightest change of colour, texture or brilliancy, and of course contains no foreign substance to change its colour.

By reference to Joseph Harrod and Newton Richards, Esqrs. of this city, and who know the location of this quarry, I am informed that it is on the banks of the Sheepscot, a river in Maine that never was known to freeze within several miles of the quarry, a 74 gun ship might load within three rods of the spot where the stone is quarried, and that the stone is brought to a perfectly uniform colour, and of every variety of dimension, from 19 feet to a few inches, and 40 feet in length, to supply every city in the Union.

I was pleased with the remarks of "A Friend to Improvement," and hope the lovers of architectural beauty will take measures for the general introduction of this noble stone into our city, which will give to it a hereafter a dignity and beauty of style unrivalled in any other place.
ARCHITECTURE.

The undersigned, treasurer of "the New Orleans Catholic Association for the relief of male orphans," as an organ of these grateful orphans, has great pleasure in acknowledging the receipt for them of the sum of two hundred and ninety three dollars, through the Rev. L. Moni, the same being the amount of a collection taken up on last Sunday, the 11th inst. in the Cathedral by certain benevolent and humane young ladies of the city. The Orleans Guards generously contributing a large proportion. The kind feelings that prompted these noble exertions on the part of these young ladies shall ensure for them in addition ... all the good in the charitable city, in addition to the heartfelt joy that an approving conscience fails to afford.
