24 CHARTRES STREET.

MORISON'S HYGEIAN UNIVERSAL MEDICINES, was first introduced in this city (and state) more than six years ago, and sold at 24 Chartres street, at which place a constant supply is always to be had, either wholesale or retail, in packets at 1, 2 and 3 each, with ample directions. As there are numerous imositors pretending to sell the genuine hygeian vegetable universal medicine, this is to caution the public not to be deceived by the plausible advertisements which daily appear in the newspapers, each one professing to have the genuine article for sale.

Let those in want of them call at 24 Chartres st, where they will be certain to obtain the pure, unadulterated hygeian vegetable universal medicine, which has never failed giving general satisfaction to thousands, and has been before the public ever since 1833, and sold at the Repositories of

DAVID FELT, 24 Chartres street.

The genuine are never sold at drug stores. a29-12t

$20 REWARD will be paid for the apprehension of the negro JOSEPH or JARSEY, belonging to Mr. Dausin Gandet, of the parish of St. Jacques, from which he ran away on the 28th January. He is aged 27 or 28 years, is four feet 6 and 6 inches in height, brownish complexion; the lower part of the left ear cut; speaks English and French, had on when he went away, cottonade pantaloons, osnaburgs shirt, and a straw hat. The above reward will be paid to whoever will lodge him in one of the jails in the state, or will cause him to be delivered to the subscribers.
GOURDAIN & BENIT,
a30 1m 13 Conti street.

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD will be given for bringing back to the lower steam cotton press, or lodging in one of the jails of this city, the boy WILLIS, ran away since the 23d inst. He is 6 feet high, dark complexion, and a well made fellow; he is in the habit of casting down his eyes and raising his right arm when spoken to, he has a light scar extending on his left cheek down to the lip. He had, when he absconded, a soldier leather cap and cottonade pantaloons. It is supposed that he is concealing himself in the upper faubourg, about the cotton presses, or foundry, or will contrive to leave the city, and cross the lake, or embark on board of a steam vessel or steamboat.

Captains of any craft whatever, are hereby forewarned not to harbour him, for fear they should be prosecuted to the extent of the law.
D F GUEX,
New Orleans, April 26, 1839. a28

TWENTY DOLLARS REWARD.—will be paid to whoever will safely deliver in prison the negress MARY ANN, about 28 or 30 years of age, small size, and has generally a handkerchief around her head. As she has a husband on board some steamboat, employed as a cook, she may attempt to get away with him. Captains of boats are hereby forewarned not to be guilty of carrying away said slave.
JN U WILKINSON.

24 CHARTRES STREET.

MORISON'S HYGEIAN UNIVERSAL MEDICINES, was first introduced in this city (and state) more than six years ago, and sold at 24 Chartres street, at which place a constant supply is always to be had, either wholesale or retail, in packets at 1, 2 and 3 each, with ample directions. As there are numerous imositors pretending to sell the genuine hygeian vegetable universal medicine, this is to caution the public not to be deceived by the plausible advertisements which daily appear in the newspapers, each one professing to have the genuine article for sale.

Let those in want of them call at 24 Chartres st, where they will be certain to obtain the pure, unadulterated hygeian vegetable universal medicine, which has never failed giving general satisfaction to thousands, and has
