Disasters.

The ship Thomas Perkins, Higgins, from Boston, for New Orleans, is ashore in distress, spring a leak on the 24th inst, sailing 4 inches of water in her. During the passage the master threw over part a portion of the cargo to the windward, and the crew employed in the same way to the leeward, to keep her on an even keel. The ship was making 9 inches of water per hour. The ship was being able to keep free, and expecting every moment to go to the bottom. The ship left there twenty-four hours with a fair wind, but was unable to take her to sea. Capt Higgins, master of the ship, left for New Orleans to procure assistance to get the vessel off.

The bark Texas, Jones, from Galveston, had been spoken on the night of the 23d inst, off the Southwest Pass, with loss of boats, sails, &c.
