FREE DAY SCHOOL,

Attached to the Poydras Asylum.

THE managers of the Female Orphan Asylum having, for many years past, had frequent application for the admission of children into the Poydras Asylum, who were not objects of that institution, having one, and in many instances both parents, and wishing to extend the usefulness of the institution, have resolved to open a free day-school for the education of female children who are parents cannot give them instruction elsewhere. They propose to teach the pupils English reading, arithmetic and plain sewing.

Parents desirous of availing themselves of this opportunity to receive a certificate of admission, for which they will be required to apply at the Asylum, corner of Girod and Camp streets, between the hours of 9 and 12 o'clock, A. M. Information as to the number of vacancies, and the terms of tuition, may be obtained at the same place.
