

Congratulations on completing the Columbia Amateur Radio Association (CARA) Technician class course! Following are aids in preparing for the exam and getting started in Amateur radio.

Bring ID to the Exam!

You should bring 2 pieces of ID. One must be photo ID such as a driver's license, military ID, passport, school ID, etc.

You may also bring a calculator

On-line Practice Exams:

<http://www.qrz.com/p/testing.pl>

Select "Technician" to take a practice test.

Free FCC Exam February 19 at 9:00 AM Laurel Womens' Center 384 Main Street Laurel, Maryland
--

FCC Database

<http://wireless.fcc.gov/uls/index.htm>

Search on "licenses"

Search "by name" (use drop down box)

Type in "lastname, firstname"

Calls signs should be in the database by noon Monday

American Radio Relay League (ARRL):

www.arrl.org

ARRL Maryland DC Section (for list of MDC affiliated clubs)

<http://www.arrl-mdc.net/>

Laurel Amateur Radio Club (LARC)

<http://www.larcmd.org/>

Montgomery Amateur Radio Club (MARC)

www.marclub.org

Frederick Amateur Radio Club (FARC)

<http://www.qsl.net/k3erm/>

Columbia Amateur Radio Association (CARA)

<http://www.columbiaara.org>